Cryptography - March 28, 2014, 9:37 pm

I'd like to know of people's opinions regarding groups they have enjoyed being in.

If you'd like you can post multiple groups. (or even former official groups)

Fox™ - March 28, 2014, 9:41 pm

Groups I've been in and opinions:

Skill - Awesome group while it lasted.

The Empire - Still in it. Favorite group. Tight family-like group. I love it so much.

fbn - Awesome while I was in it. I got in through the Photography Workshop. Didn't graduate due to a few issues, and complications going on in my life. Really great group. Gets down to business.

Void - I was an active member in discussions, and I loved it. Most HQ group on the forum IMO. I hate how it's now 'Nexus'. Kind of bored without it. No where I can actively discuss mature topics.

The Brotherhood - Not much to say.

Complexity - Just joined.

Obli - March 28, 2014, 9:44 pm

Empire, lounge group

fbn, real graphics group

Nexus, great group for LoL players but you don't care since you're in Complexity, got in once for graphics, the sf was not active nor was it organized

Void, best group I've been in, before/after fbn

That's about all. (I'm talking about groups I have been in, not ALL the groups on HF)

Skitlz - March 28, 2014, 9:54 pm

Here, I'll give you some insight on all the groups I've participated in on my time here.

Respawn - It's a Gaming Group that tries but never will succeed glory on this forum, the other gaming groups put too much effort into their groups for Respawn to be even noticeable on the forum.

Legion - Professionally set -out and organised group, very intelligent members to hang out and learn new things with.

Instinct - Amazing gaming group that doesn't so much set out to be HQ but peruses what a gaming group needs, which is of course game with not the worry of "Shit I gotta check-in" "Damn! I played heaps LoL and got kicked due to missing the post count this week"

Infamous - Phenomenal group, in my eyes the most HQ group on Hack Forums, It's rarity is amazing due to only the luckiest members get the chance to be apart of the family.

Illuminati - Decent group, no activity but if you're looking to make cash it's the best way to go, being apart of the group endorses your products dramatically.

The Republic - I wasn't in there for long, but was in the early stages. I'm not sure what it's like now, but when I was there it has a good bunch of members

Nexus - I recently joined Nexus and so far it's amazing! I'm currently holding a recruitment for them as it was a honour to join. It's a group filled with dedicated LoL players and just a bunch of people who want to have fun.

The Empire - Nice group if you're looking for posting 24/7 it's probably the most active group on HF filled with great people and entertaining posts.

Complexity - This was my first group, it's alright but has members obtain a spot in the group to easily.

The Brotherhood - Another amazing group filled with fantastic people! and leaders try Phenomenally hard to make the group the best it can be.

eight - March 28, 2014, 11:00 pm

My favorite group that I've been in has to be Writ3rs.

Cloudy - March 28, 2014, 11:04 pm

Infamous - Was always my dream group. Made a lot of friends in it, best group I've been in.

Void and Logic - Hexicidal is a long time friend. Was an amazing group.

Respawn (Back in the day) - Super fun group, made a lot of friends, had good times.

Rhythm - If you were in, you know why.

Instinct - Again, if you're in, you know why.

Those are the best of the groups that I've been in.

CyberneticTitan - March 28, 2014, 11:06 pm

In order of joining:

Respawn - Joined when they were accepting people for the lols before it was changed to Innovation. Not much to say about it.

Void - One of the better groups. Many intelligent members in there, discussing, debating, and the occasional argument. One big happy family.

The Brotherhood - I was accepted into the Computing sector, which is now flourishing. The subforum was a little dead tbh. They're good people.

The Empire - The best group imho. A bunch of friendly members just having a nice time chatting with one another. Very engaging.

Innovation - Dead. Not much else to say.

Nexus - Migration from Void. I have no opinion of the group as of now. They're trying hard to create a surviving community of LoL loving members.

Vitani's Mate - March 29, 2014, 12:48 am

Based on the groups i have been in or in already.

Respawn (Back in the day when it was first opened.) - It wasn't bad. It just all the assignments and check ins that i have to do was pissing me off.

Instinct - Best group EVER on HF, people who are in this group are funny as fuck and awesome.

Complexity - This group is pretty cool i guess..

Minecrafters - A group for people who play Minecraft. It was a pretty awesome group. ^^

Bet - March 29, 2014, 1:01 am

Order of joining for me:

Instinct: One of the best groups on HF. Great and funny people

The Brotherhood: Wasn't in here for long but it seemed good

Innovation/Respawn: DEAD

Complexity: Neutral, I liked when I first joined

The Empire: Great people and nice group in general. Really friendly and cool leaders Infamous: AMAZING group. Really nice members and leaders. Love it.

Athlete - March 29, 2014, 1:02 am

Complexity is not only a graphics group for those who were saying.

Complexity is has a wide range of topics.

Gaming, GFX, Film (Used to), Coding ect ect.

Freddy Kru?ger - March 29, 2014, 1:07 am Going to talk about every group I have ever been in.

Past groups:

Legion: It was great when I first joined and honestly it was the group that started me off. Anonymous didn't have time (or was lazy, I don't know) so all the good members left and I followed shortly.

Skill: It was alright I guess, the leaders didn't do much (except Xypher of course), It was fun though.

The Brotherhood: Stayed for a few minutes then left, I personally didn't enjoy it.

Complexity: It was a nice and productive group, I left because I didn't have time for it but now that I do, I'll attempt to get back in as it was very good.

Polymath: Was there for a few hours, I will not discuss it.

Current groups:

143: What can I say? This group is more like family to me than my actual family, I love every single person in there and it has been an amazing ride.

Infamous: I've been in here for a few weeks now so I've not yet settled in and met everyone, It's a really great group though. shout out to Matt for being such a great guy.

The Empire: This is my favorite group, I know everyone in there and post there daily. Just a great atmosphere overall. Tibit paid me to be nice.

Void: I refuse to call it something else, R.I.P Void

Instinct: bunch of hardcore dank kush smoking bad asses (and package). ?

iKinky - March 29, 2014, 1:11 am

I am a huge fan of all of the groups that I'm currently in.

lenaos - March 29, 2014, 2:20 am

The Empire - Lounge group, no comment.

Complexity - Just joined.

fbn - For the time that I was in this group, I enjoyed it. They got down to business.

Nexus - Just joined.

Writ3rs - One of my favorite groups I'm in, activity is abundant.

Polymath - One of my favorite groups I'm in, quite active.

The Brotherhood - Active group, owners try to make it the best that it can be.

Respawn - No comment, I left after a week.

scam. - March 29, 2014, 2:44 am

Current groups:

The Empire:

Hands down my favourite group on the forums. So much fun to be a part of. I've met so many cool members there.

Complexity:

Another group filled with pretty cool people. I've really enjoyed being in it.

Brotherhood:

There is a lot of very knowledgeable people in this group.

Im gone brah - March 29, 2014, 5:05 am

Groups I've been in.

The empire; Great group

Complexity; Great group, to bad - nothing for me.

Void; Shame it's gone.

Skill; ????????

Respawn; ????????

Legion; My first group.

Probably missed one or two.

Rivalry - March 29, 2014, 5:50 am fbn: was in twice towards the back end of last year, the members were great but it always seemed like the ideas were aplenty, but the execution was nowhere. It just seemed like nothing could ever stick. Still, it was a really good group with a lot of talented members.

Void (refuse to call it Nexus): best group I've ever been in anywhere, hands down. Bandors was a great leader, and I could always learn something every time I went into the sub-forum. Hopefully I taught as much as I learnt. A real loss for HF now that it has been replaced by yet another gaming group.

Complexity: it's certainly active, but sometimes seems a bit disjointed between sectors. I enjoy it in the sub-forum nonetheless; everyone is really friendly.

The Empire: was removed about a week ago in the 'purge', but I enjoyed being in there. Felt a little overwhelmed at times by the sheer number of members- I was a little fish in a big pond.

Beretta - March 29, 2014, 5:54 am

L33t is an awesome group, filled with amazing HQ people.

Robust - March 29, 2014, 6:07 am

Infamous: It was honestly my favourite group. I love it in here.

Polymath: Can't say much other than it's great to be in.

Complexity: Cool to be in, nice stuff to say. Obviously has negatives to it as well.

Previously:

The Empire - Nice and friendly group

Innovation/Respawn - Inactive

phybe? Jr. - March 29, 2014, 7:25 am

Minecrafters - Chill group, not too much organization tho.
Republic - Great members, lots of fun on the skype chat.
Brotherhood - Awesome community, very friendly
Respawn - eh it was still developing.
Empire - Awesome group, I posted so much in there.

I agree, it's the only group I'm in and I love it!

clark.dll - March 29, 2014, 8:28 am

The Empire and The Writ3rs are my two favourite groups I've ever been apart of.

D?vil - March 29, 2014, 8:28 am

Complexity: I didn't enjoy it, I found it too be very strict.

Instinct: Simply amazing, really relaxed group, very active, not active because people need to post, because they want too, thats why I love it.

Infamous: Like many others have said, its amazing, the people in it are amazing.

Vouch, sometimes the simplest group is the best OT, I've been in Empire before. I didn't have enough time to form an opinion, but it was a lounge group. So many members.

C-Only - March 29, 2014, 8:47 am

I'd say the fags... (Yeeaah not an official one)

It was litereally so retarded but satisfying talking with the other members.

All the love from everyone since we all was gathered under 1 name... 1 name as stupid as The Fags with the most gay art I've ever seen.. And I even made the gfx myself..

But all in all it was a lovely group and still is.

Another thing... Haven't we seen this kind of thread quite many times now?

Though Infamous will always have a special place in my heart since I respect many of their members.

Troye - March 29, 2014, 12:14 pm

Instinct - My favorite group. Everyone in it is fucking amazing.

Complexity - New to the group so no real opinion.
