Thread: Some helpful tips for those that feel like giving up

MDewd - March 30, 2014, 6:24 pm

I recently took a break from e-whoring as I found a steady gold mine that would send me $130 every week however I recently decided I wanted more so I started up again and made $365 yesterday and $130 today. Tips you ask?:

- Screw chat rooms, Craigslist is the way to go
- If you're ghosted on craigslist, try to reset your router or use a different computer, email, and delete cookies.
- Don't mention the word money, financial, cam show or anything like that in the ad it will get AUTO removed.
- Give a good story as to why you need the money, even if its stupid and you're a good social engineer you should get them to send (I told a guy my car broke down so I needed him to send me Amazon gift cards and he sent me $200 yesterday LOL)
- Try to lean more towards Amazon gift cards, that way when you purchase an item you can SE amazon and refund it and get double the $$ but that's a whole different demon..look it up if you don't know how
- Last but not least, don't try to do shows, just try to do pics or vids, dealing with proving you're real is too much of a hassle.

I'm no pro or anything, just giving a little help to those that are like I was and felt like Ewhoring was saturated and a waste of time.

Hey man! Are you willing to get on skype and help me with this? E-Whoring has never worked for me, not once. Mind showing me the ropes?

nice tips bro :) thanks! and to 8gold8, don't worry man, just step up your game, be more aggressive, if you want to get paid before you show them anything, then say so and make it clear, make them desire you.

Do not get too aggressive , take my word , it could end up a little bad
