Thread: Big question about Monetizing eBooks.

CrossFire1010010100 - April 6, 2014, 3:29 am

The question I ask my self and NOBODY has answered me is:

Why, do people sell eBooks that claim you will be able to make "$1200+ IN A FEW DAYS - 5K+ MADE IN LESS THAN A WEEK"? for example.

I mean why would anyone sell a method that will allow you to make $5000+ a Week or $500 a Day?

Do you guys even realize about making those amounts of money in that time frame while sitting in front of a computer doing a "really easy method" almost "autopilot" is just highly unusual for me. I'm not trying to trash anyone sales, but can someone answer this for me?

I would personally and definitely not sell a method that's making me $500 a day which is $15,000 a MONTH! I would not sell it all.

The only profit I encountered on eBooks is selling other eBooks ?

Because they are all fake!

They only sell it because they want some money with no-working methods.

The seller only earns the money with selling.

No ebook ever, ever, ever about moneymaking really worked.

Fake, there was an ebook that worked, that got resold by multiple people, it was about making ebooks to sell. There you go.

Because everybody wants money. You do and so do they.

There are original methods working, what happens when your method starts to get saturated?

You earn the very last little bit of it, and what is up next?

You earn even more from it by writing an ebook and selling it.

Cycle of money in IM...

Cycle of money in IM...How a method that I only have will saturate ?

There are no guarantees that we will make money with these eBooks. The reviewers review it before testing it. Even if we can make money it will be usually small. Most of the blackhat and ewhoring method works though. When it is whitehat it doesn't work because it requires so much skill and time. Well if you want to make money I recommend buying blackhat methods or ewhore method.

There are some methods that actually do work and people sell e-books to make EVEN more money; that doesn't mean those e-books don't work.

Well, there is the possibility that you aren't really the only one though my thought you were. The other possibility is that it becomes useless due to something or that you saturate it yourself.
