Thread: my new game just came in. J-stars victory vs

Ice Queen - April 7, 2014, 4:40 am

Heya guys,

My new game just came in the mail and I'm booting it atm. Been thinking of doing a review. What do you guys think?

Tell me, where did you get it? I have thought about getting a flasher to CFW my ps3 just to play it xD

It really looks like an awesome game if you ask me, please tell me which role Chitoge has, I have not been able to find details about her :3

And have fun!

You start with Ichigo naruto gintama toriko and luffy.

So I don't have her yet. I bought the game at play-asia.com with free shipping. No region lock.

Ps. Who is that person, chitoge?

I remember watching this trailer. It's so sick how in-depth they are with the characters. Needs to be publicized more.

I see, well, that doesn't really seem weird though xD

But It's just so damn expensive at play-asia...

Anyways, chitoge is this girl:

Chitoge Kirisaki from Nisekoi :3

Ok, chitoge is the blond one. She is an assist only character and all she does is bitch slap an opponent towards you without any damage. Good if you need to close the distance, bit lacking a lot.

Aka pretty much useless unless with a good main character.

And how is 50$ for a month-old game with free shipping expensive? Unless you're looking at the anison sound edition of 100$+

Awh, dang it :c

I would say $50 is great if it is fully-working O.o especially with free shipping!

What is the difference between the 2 versions?

Anison sound edition has some of the OPs in it. But it's not worth the extra money as you can swap in-game bgm with music you have on your ps3 through the options menu. And you get a brand new game so it works completly. A month old was referring to the game's release date.

Oh I see, well, in that case I don't care for the anison version xD

Nevertheless, I still don't see where you get $50, play-asia is $75...

Sorry, my mistake. I obviously payed for it in euros, not dollars.

haha, fair fair, I will think about it, I might buy it, I am too lazy to go and CFW, and I want to support the creators :3

NMKing - April 7, 2014, 1:40 pm

The Game looks great,might buy it soon.
