Hey guys, This is my big pup Dante, he's a Mastiff x Great Dane. What do you guys think of him? :D

For me the image of him is not coming up, can someone tell me if you can see the image? :)

Pretty pup. I bet it's fun having him all over you in the morning hahaha. I always liked Great Danes, such majestic dogs.

I personally have a couple of Huskies... So much work, and so many precious things ruined.

Eat your heart out ;)

awwwww, there so adorable :) I've always wanted a huskie, they looks so cool! Lucky you :)

Haha thanks guys... I tell you, they are not as much fun as you may think -_-'

My mother had to have two metal rods inserted into her back, to keep her spine straight, because they kept pulling her over. And when they see a squirrel or a fox or a leaf or food or another dog or a cat or some grass, you're the one going for walkies.

Pretty nice dog, actual big ?

TechDevils - April 8, 2014, 5:50 am

It is really cute. I would not mess with him. The huskies are really cute too.

Your dogs must be so baked dude ... can't even tell if their eyes are open! But in all seriousness huskies are awesome dogs, my friend has one.

Innocent Vigilante - April 8, 2014, 5:53 am

Thanks guys, he's only 9 months old and hes already huge, he sure is a big boy with plenty more of growing yet to do!
