What are some websites that you can earn money just from referrals? Lately, I've found that it's not that hard to get a shit ton of referrals.

A lot of CPA, PPD, and PPC sites have referral links that can give you money. A site that gives you a decent amount from referrals is MySurvey. If you can get people to sign up under your link, they give you a decent chunk of money I believe.

PeerFly has a deal that if you refer someone, you'll get 5% of their earnings.

You just have to look around at these affiliate marketing sites. They all have pretty good deals on referrals.

Chaturbate is the adult-webcam website. They pay (I think) $1.00 per sign-up. And the sign-ups don't require confirmation.

I'm pretty sure ANY website that has affiliate/referrals wouldn't want you spamming to begin with.

Sorry, just want to point out that your "Profit Creator" referral link/image in your signature is cut off.

Also your wild amount of how much you 'made' is kind of ridiculous, especially since your signature is a referral. (No one would ever do that)

Just saying. :>

A lesser known website is SurveyLion.com. Pays $5 per referral which is quite significant I think.
Much higher than most sites.
