The views have been delivered! :) Next time, however, please enter an amount of viewers you want. 500 have been sent as the default. Please remember to reply back on this thread!

These are livestream views, not channel views. This means that you have to be streaming for us to give them. Also, please try to be more descriptive about the number of viewers you want. It can be very obvious with your current channel if we did as many as possible (thousands of live viewers with only ~50 channel views.) However, I realize that I'm posting this a while after you requested it.

I apologize to both parties for the delay. I don't receive any type of notification for posts on this thread.

Would you be interested in selling/giving away the bot?

I don't like that you say you broke 10k, when you're on FSG, who gets 4k viewers all the time anyways.
