Thread: [Scammed by Devs | uid=2232125 \[Payment Reversed\] \[OMC Currency Exchange\] L33T MEMBER](#)

Tenaxium - April 13, 2014, 3:16 pm

Alright this is kinda complicated, ill explain it in the best way I can. I have a PayPal holder, Exile, since PayPal does not like me for some reason. PP payments went directly to him, and I simply sold the stuff, then I would transfer it to my BTC address via currency exchange, he did not charge a fee as he was a friend of mine. The issue is I am currently in trouble with him as it is kinda my fought, so yeah ._.

I was doing 1k OMC --> PayPal (I had the OMC, he had the PP) and all was fine until this member disputed the payment and won instantly (Stolen PayPal?)

The member was Devs.

PROOF:

Notice the transaction ID, its complete randomness, not even sure its a real transaction ID. I just never checked. I know its him because hes the only member I sold $45 worth to though.
