Just to let you know, you have a spelling fail.

"We only ac©ept.."

You need a c :)

Kr?nus - April 14, 2014, 11:26 am

Hmm... it looks good. All I dont like is the text inside the boxes. Also, you should move "Payment" layer over the box layer - As you can see, the letter "y" is behind the line. I rate it 7.5/10

Auxil - April 14, 2014, 1:36 pm

It's alright. I like the concept you were going for, but it was not executed correctly.

The boxes do not seem like they are large enough, but I like the little "slash gradient" design thing you have going on in there.

Might want to touch that up. :P

By the way, you misspelled "Accept".

Looks good, but yea i would say it would need a bit more background and color, or else its 7/10 for me

Firepinch - April 14, 2014, 6:39 pm

It's good. I'd give you an 8/10. I honestly don't think the green goes well with the background, though. And the hint of grey line on the side throws my eyes off a bit.

Hawpy - April 14, 2014, 6:43 pm

Love the colors I'd say 9/10 since I like the clean and simplicity of it!

Fer? - April 14, 2014, 6:45 pm

Way to basic in my opinion sorry to say I'd never buy a product with this design.

?wner - April 15, 2014, 3:55 pm its cool i like it black :d ;) you maybe should try more colours :D

harlowgraham - April 15, 2014, 4:19 pm

Great design, but maybe add a few more colors. But other than that its nice and sleek.

SonsOfAnarchy - April 15, 2014, 4:35 pm not trying to be nasty or bring u down in anyway bro but it feels a bit to bland for my liking you could make a little bigger also maybe make it pop so it catches your eye more sorry if u feel as if my criticism is wrong in anyway that's just how i see it bro

I have seen this thread design used before, Not saying you didn't make it just saying I've seen it used before in another thread. Unless you made it and gave it to that guy.
