Thread: "PMing Staff Now" Quote

0x - April 15, 2014, 9:56 pm

What's up with all of these quotes trying to get staff involve?

Hack Forums is a forum for everyone to have discussions about various topics, not a online police station.

The worst part, these quotes are coming from external sources than the actual forum itself.

It's to the point where if you call someone a bitch over Skype, the first thing they have to say is "OMG I'm messaging a staff right now!!!"

What are your opinions on this? I'm just sick and tired of all these babies using Omni and his staff when they get butthurt about stuff.

Brian Moser - April 15, 2014, 10:44 pm

haha. It would get annoying considering that it does not need to be brought into the forum yet it does and the consequences can get dragged in also.

Br?ndon - April 15, 2014, 10:46 pm

One sec pming a staff member ?

eight - April 15, 2014, 10:47 pm

I'm trying to understand what you're bitching about.

Duyere - April 15, 2014, 10:47 pm

Brb reporting thread and contacting every single staff member possible.

I'm not bitching about anything. I'm pointing my opinion about this since it's really annoying to deal with people when they come up with the famous quote "pming staff omg!"

?Saint - April 16, 2014, 1:30 pm

Well I've never heard of such incident occurring.

Blvck Scvle - April 16, 2014, 1:30 pm

This is true.

As a side note, I have to PM staff about this thread. ?
(JK, but I've never heard of someone doing this...)

Talu - April 16, 2014, 1:31 pm

When dealing in the marketing section 24/7 and you make deals on Skype, you would hear it at least 5 times a day.

Would be cool to do an experiment for a week.

Here's the concept:

- There is no staff
- -10 reputation gets you banned
- 7 uber reports gets your post deleted (Don't ask why it's 7)

That would be way to bad. Here's why,

- Piss someone off
- That person will get his friends to gang rep you
- You get banned for someone rage

I agree that it would suppress the freedom of speech, although it would be entertaining to try just for a week. (After the week all accounts are restored to what they were before).

But yeah, it would become more of a gang-game than an open forum.

The online list would be a blackout lol.

Bronn - April 16, 2014, 2:07 pm

Stop scamming people and then they won't have a reason to try and get staff involved.

Brule - April 16, 2014, 2:30 pm

I agree a little with you, I think more people should discuss, instead of someone else taking care of the case.

Depends on the case though.

SIM-1179501 - April 16, 2014, 2:32 pm

You shouldn't be talking about this pming staff.

Morchid - April 16, 2014, 2:36 pm

I've never received any of these PMs before ?.

Then again, maybe I'm not special enough.

VLAN - April 16, 2014, 2:38 pm

Members actually do this? What in the actual fuck? Full of kids.

gore - April 16, 2014, 2:53 pm

If someone said that to me offsite, I'd laugh and continue being a fuckhead to them.

Staff won't do anything that's offsite, they're not able to.

Now, if I was releasing personal data and threatening/flaming someone onsite, then something could be done.
