1. Link to the scammer's profile. This is to prevent confusion if a username change occurs.

2. Link to the thread in question if it exists where you may have been scammed.

Recently wapix contacted me because he was interested on my method.
I asked him to confirm his identity by pming me his skype username.

Spoiler (Click to View)

Normally my method is 200€ but I decided to lower the price to 185€.

I received the payment of 185€ but some days after the payment gets disputed.

Proof I sent the ebook to the user.

Put his uid in the thread title. Other than that, legit scam report.

diiiaz - April 16, 2014, 4:53 am

Seems like a legit report. Hope you get it resolved/your money back.

Riddick - April 16, 2014, 5:07 am

Calm down, this is a mistake. I didn't file a report, remember I told you PayPal was going slow, it's because I was logged into a VPN and forgot. PayPal called me and asked if I recognized the payment (I assume because the IP was outside of my country) I've told them yes, calm down they are going to sort this out for you.

Edit: And for the record, I like your method.

When this gets fixed I will junk this thread. If it doesn't this thread won't be closed.

The user didn't pay me yet. Most likely will never pay.

I am still in contact with you via PM. Like I said, feel free to call PayPal and ask what's going on. I know they rarely hold funds, but I still can't access them.

Gillte - May 17, 2014, 8:06 am

You still have not payed me back. Its been a long time

Peanut Butter - May 17, 2014, 8:13 am

Call PayPal like he said to do, try to resolve it with them.

Riddick - May 18, 2014, 2:06 pm

You want to know why I didn't pay this guy?

First of all, the initial payment was revoked automatically by PayPal because I was logged into a VPN when I paid and it was a genuine mistake. I was actually going to send the money back to him but when he filed this scam report, another one of Gillte's customers revealed to me that the method he is selling is a public method that doesn't work like he says it does and has a high probability of losing money.

I looked into it and found out they were telling the truth, so I'm glad PayPal blocked the payment and I want to thank the other guy (who doesn't want to be mentioned right now) for bringing this to my attention.

I was promised several things by Gillte, for example:

- 1) Gillte said the method is unique (not true)
- 2) Gillte said he invented the method (not true)
- 3) Gillte said the chance of losing money is 0.1% (not true)

First of all, the method is EXTREMELY PUBLIC. Secondly, he DID NOT invent the method and lastly you are VERY LIKELY to lose money this way.

To sum it all up all you need to go is go to this link, technically I'm just showing you something that is easily found on Google: <http://imgtfy.com/?q=blackjack+cheat+sheet> (I'm sure you can work out what I just showed you).

Gillte was using a PRACTICE MODE as his PROOF OF PAYMENT. He doesn't even risk his own money with this method.

Gillte's answer to this is "You must pay me, even if it's public, it does not matter, you must still pay"
- he tried to charge me 185 Euros for this.

I'll let the community make their own minds up about whether I'm a scammer or not.

Edit: Oh and he's not happy so he -3 me and got his friend to do it too, oh nooooo, lol.
