This is a nice account yes, the ONLY thing giving it any price is that you can provide a email with it. Personally i think you should drop the price by quite a lot. Gl on selling though, hope you get your price and DONT hesitate to purchase from him, great guy and trusted!

Hmmmm. Would be a nice account for me to start with but that price is not worth it for me since it has nowhere near half the champs! Good luck with sales, though.

The account being diamond with decent/above average MMR alone is worth $125 already imo.
