Anyways, now he won't reply to my PMs, and won't provide me his service. It's been a week now. Until this is resolved, I suggest not buying from this user.

I have sent followers to your account, the name of the IG account you provided me does not exist so therefore I couldn't start them. I have now see your old message where you gave me the wrong address and have found the real one: <http://instagram.com/crumpetedits>

Order has begun will be finished soon. And I apologise for not replying to your 1 PM. Thanks, have sent you a PM with more details on this and glad to get this resolved. Will deliver more too.

Anyway :) I'm able to take orders all day :)

Twitter has been getting good at deleting spam accounts.

currently retention is good after a few updates, I can do low retention ones if you ever want that either lol. But there is of course always some drop , maybe 5-10% depending on the order size and it wont be fast dropping.

I bought HQ followers but didn't receive them, instead I was sent low quality accounts with some profile pictures only 3-4 tweets each and no followers. Those obviously aren't high quality

I've asked op kindly to remove my Twitter username from the order or program he's using and he hasn't. I've also asked for a refund but didn't get it yet. He also is not replying to my PM's.

Eclectic - February 4, 2015, 1:50 pm

I have refunded you, you didn't send the transaction ID when I first asked. Idk what you define as HQ tbh, they had pics, tweets bio's etc... and were USA targeted. I recommend finding retweets from someone.

I'm Online and selling for anyone who wants to purchase!

This user verbally abuses you and treats you like shit, judge for yourself

Spoiler (Click to View)

Only kidding, spoke to him regarding Instagram photo likes and becoming famous through his services. He replied with a sudden "do you honestly think your fkin funny", I suddenly had an erected penis. Upon speaking to him again, 5 minutes later he spoke of the prices for Instagram likes. I had agreed to purchase 100k for a beautiful price(at this point I was basically led to believe he was infact a she, and I was paying for vids). I transferred the paypal funds over, and the process started after i sent him an Instagram url for the photo dedicated to him of my gigantic monster-like penis, he instantly released thousands upon thousands of minions who all liked the photo of my gigantic cock and spoke of there horniness for the beauty of which was my penis. The counter is still going crazy while I receive even more likes, although that is to be expected as my penis is pretty special.

Thank you so much BennK, you're a babe. I will be returning shortly to purchase 1337k(idk why you don't believe me), but yeah. Thank you so much for your services.

Vouch for this service and BennK. The service was delayed, due to small problems, but he tried to fix it as quick as he can. To my knowledge it was happening to Many other customers.

Also, he processed my order several times while it was not working, and I'll be getting an extra 1000 followers, which he will not charge, as a courtesy for the problem.

Really nice and HQ user.

Here are some pictures of the service working:

This is my 2nd time with his service, He runs this since 2014 and is a best social ninja I had ever experienced. He knows the ups and downs of social media services.

His panel is noob friendly and very advanced. Every detail before and after orders are arranged systematically. Users don't need to calculate, amount, old followers, and newly added followers count's etc. Sleek and responsive panel.

The guy is very friendly and professional when it comes to supporting, many sellers would start aggressive or ignore their clients after orders are placed. But this guy would have lot of patience to clearly talk with clients, period.

He would simply add dropped followers with just one question and without arguing with clients. Would add more than drop ratio as a compliment or say compensation. Overall he knows how to stay in this market and do business professionally

And on top of all this, he provides 10% bonus funds depending on amount deposited [Big amount == Big bonus].

If he adds referral system to his panel, i would be first to promote it all over the web

You won't regret and trust me, I say that from my experience

Regards JC Thanks so much for the kind words.

Signed up (thkon) and deposited $5 to test the tool. I'll edit this with my review or final two cents, once my order goes through, and I have something to report back.

It was very easy to sign up on the website and deposit funds, that I can say already!

EDIT: So far, about 25% of my order has gone through. The followers are rolling into my Instagram profile one by one, and I have absolutely nothing to complain about thus far. The followers' profiles have various ranges of content, legitimacy and follower/following-ratios, adding a sense of realism to the list. My only one quarrel with the application is, that an overwhelming amount of new followers seem to be South-American, so there is not very much geographic diversity. Other than that, flawless.

First time deposits and people who haven't confirmed are manual. I'm usually very very fast unless I'm sleeping, as I always have internet and get the email notification.

It is manual to stop scammers, every so often someone new deposits $100 so I reach out to their skype or the email the payment was made on to verify it is authorized, more often than not I don't get a reply and the payment is reversed through an unauthorized claim.

So if you want automatic deposits just confirm with me! It is no problem then. ?

I am still waiting to complete my order? Why this takes so long?

I paid for 5000 and only got 10000

DoctorParadox - September 11, 2017, 11:18 pm

I've been using his service for 3 orders, and honestly I'd say it's okay. He has the lowest minimum deposit out of all smm panels so I guess that's a plus, but other than that I'd say it's not worth the headache. The first time I added funds it took a long long while for them to show up in my balance. The other problem I ran into was delays, I bought somelikes on IG and they took an hour to show up, bought some youtube views and they took half a day to show up, and now I have bought more likes on IG and it's been a whole day and they still haven't showed up. Also, this panel doesn't have "trickling" which can land you in trouble with some social media accounts like IG and twitter. No low minimum either so that makes buying followers or likes for an account with less than 1k followers really risky. He was cooperative on skype so that's a plus, didn't reply to my ticket on the website at all though.

All in all, if this is the first time you're using an SMM panel, go for it. If not, don't bother.

Eclectic - September 12, 2017, 2:35 am

Hey guys I'm sorry for all the delays I'm busy with interviews and college recently. I will fix all problems tonight and refund orders not working. Apologies for the slow service recently.

funstimebest - November 2, 2017, 1:15 pm

So far, services are legit. Made 8 orders. Likes, views, etc all deliver much faster than some other service providers. My only 2 complaints would be that it takes a while for deposits to post to account for use. And my other complaint is there doesn't seem to be a deposit history list. Just your current balance. But otherwise, the service and ease of use is top shelf.

If I may make a suggestion though, the API Key should be displayed on a settings page of sorts instead of on the sage page as the documentation.
