Thread: 4chan source code leaked

hackdaywalker - April 24, 2014, 5:15 am

Hello,

The source code of 4chan is leaked here: <http://pastebin.com/a45dp3Q1>

Some people say that it's not the real one and some say it is!

It may or may not be. Not too sure but it looks like it could be 4chan source from 2010. The source code is terribly written.

What do you mean leaked ? It's been available for years. You could download the 4chan source/theme etc from many sites. Just search on Google. That one code won't work because you need the other config files.

I'm not entirely sure, but I remember this getting "leaked" a few years ago somewhere else. Not entirely sure though, so thanks for sharing this with the community, anyway!

Leaked? Come on. This has been around forever, you can make your own imageboard, this is available everywhere.

Quote:extract($_POST);
extract($_GET);
extract($_COOKIE);

extract without the "EXTR_SKIP" flag is retarded and I think it's a joke paste.
