Thread: Suggestion To Introduce Payment System Like Ebay !

blackstriker_001 - April 25, 2014, 6:06 am

Hi,

Well we all know HF is a big and an important forum and even more important is its market place.1000s of us buy something around on HF every day.Many have been scammed till now.I think HF should introduce something like ebay.Like when one person pays the amount is kept with HF and after the buyer confirms the item payment is made to the seller.A perfect system can be made.??

TheBlackHat - April 25, 2014, 6:07 am

Dude you are a genius, how did you come up with this brilliant innovative idea?

Chrazy - April 25, 2014, 6:09 am

So when they chargeback, HF gets fucked over. I'm sure omni will love that.

I said Perfect System can be made.Ebay does it why can HF.We gotta look at Cons and can fix it.Hackforums wont be perfect at start but Omni gradully did that ! So can be done even ?? Anyways its just a suggestions.I am just a new member here.

That's called an escrow system. It was denied many times, last time was yesterday.

1997 - April 25, 2014, 6:15 am

I suppose with the Omni coins you could use an Escrow service?

So? That's still making HF endorse deals.

HF is not an escrow. A change of currency doesn't make the principle acceptable. Besides, it has its risks; let's remember what happened with SK.

Omni said on the thread I linked "we will not get involved in deals", I think it's pretty clear.

blackstriker_001 - April 25, 2014, 9:40 pm

Hmm Yes its okay no issues.Anyways i love HF :D

Scrandy - April 25, 2014, 10:58 pm

Ebay is terrible for sellers. There is almost no seller protection at all, it is a joke. There are so many errors with an escrow system.

Also, what is SK? Never heard of it :(

CyberneticTitan - April 25, 2014, 11:00 pm

Omni is working on a vouch system. What that would be is still unknown.

Hack Forums and its staff do not get involved with deals, implementing a system like this then they would be getting involved in deals.

This.

I don't understand how people don't get this yet. Omni tells us EVERYDAY that HF will NEVER be involved in the Marketplace or any deals, yet people still keep suggesting rules and changes where HF and Omni directly would be involved in them. God.

Well its a very old Post bro.I didn't knew much about that so posted it up.Now i got it very well.Sorry for the annoying post ?

Perfect, the only problem is that HF does not get involved with deals, does not want to deal with "1000s" of more PayPal disputes and doesn't need all of the hassle that comes with it.

Oh, and the reason for HF not getting involved with disputes is likely because of scamming, drama, and all of the other issues that take place. Omniscient likely has enough on his plate already.

Xerotic - June 3, 2014, 10:01 am

HF is not responsible for deals done on site. However, do some searching and research into OMC. It could be a viable method of trade for you. Just be sure to trade safely.
