Sarkazem - April 26, 2014, 7:38 am

Im here to provide you the best street wear coupon codes to help you maximize savings when you shop at certain popular online websites, such as Karmaloop, PLNDR, Kazbah, Brick Harbor, etc. My main purpose is to help people like you save so you can feel happy and satisfied doing what you love, which is shopping. Ill answer the most frequent questions you guys have about Karmaloop since it is the most popular online shopping website for street-wear brands at the current moment.

How do I receive the most benefits out of Karmaloop Codes?

Always make sure you enter the rep code "Compensate" whether you combining promo codes or use it by itself. You will get 20% off when you use the rep code along or combine with other promo codes for extra 1% off. It is easy to save so take advantage of it.

How come Karmaloop Free Shipping Codes do not work for international order?

The Karmaloop free shipping codes usually work for customers in the United States only, and sometimes they work for Canadian shoppers as well. We apologize that we cannot help international shoppers to get free shipping. There is potential that you guys will receive this offer when Karmaloop expand to other regions. However, at the current moment, all international orders can get $8 off instead when using the Karmaloop promo codes that provide free shipping for U.S customers.

I used the rep code but it did not give me 20% off. Why is that?

With Rep Code "Compensate" or any other rep codes that you used, it only saves you 20% on your first order ONLY. Any time after the first purchase, you will continue to receive 10% off and that is the lowest that you will receive. The best thing about rep code is that it will never expire, reusable, and no minimum required, which mean it will always work does not matter about your current balance. Do not make a big deal, there are other better promo codes on this website that can help you save when combining with the Rep Code.

requires you to spend at least $50 or more. So its just an overpriced shop, that is now having a sale, but the prices are still relatively expensive..

Sarkazem - April 26, 2014, 8:39 pm

you call this expensive ? they have really good sales

Raft - April 27, 2014, 2:19 pm

I might check this out, it all depends really.

Anyone can be a rep team member, and have their own code for 20% off. Way overpriced for me, and I don't fall for the hype type of clothing. I like to wear shit that doesn't have a brand on every shirt.

horstfuchs - April 28, 2014, 11:31 am

I'm not crackwhore so nothing for me.

And hell yeah, I can get stuff from Karl Lagerfeld stuff near those prices.

Sarkazem - April 29, 2014, 8:35 am

if you really know the original prices for these brands you would know you can get some crazy deals . i understand not alot of people wear this style but no need to bash ...

Sarkazem - May 8, 2014, 8:33 pm

Check it out good sales on some dope shit !!
