Thread: Where can i report a user for persistent harrasment?

Mopex - April 26, 2014, 8:36 am

A User has sent me loads of PMs screaming verbal abuse at me for no reason(Ive never even heard of the user before). He also took nearly a whole page of my thread up along with several PMs. Is there anything i can do?

Have you tried using the ignore user function?

You could also use the report in the bottom right of a reply. It should get you in contact with a mod.

Just tell your ex boyfriend that you've find someone else.

Taken straight from the help document.

A member is harassing me via PM. I want to complain.

Staff won't take action so don't complain to us. You can add the member to your ignore list. They will then be unable to PM you.
