Non upgraded members are not allowed to post in the Gamertag section to sell their Xbox GT. We cannot post it in the SSM either.

We are however allowed (correct me if I'm wrong) to sell our PSN's in the SSM. Because there is no sub-forum for them. There is no difference between those two except for them to be for another console.

PSN is free.

Xbox LIVE isn't.

There's a difference there.

It is what it is. Don't try and fight the system

* Pillows sees this as fair. Mainly because there's a good chance of a normal member (especially one that joined recently) scamming someone else for their GT. This rule was made to lower the chance of scams.

Cyber Saint - April 29, 2014, 3:49 pm

This is for the safety of the members in this community to avoid getting scammed. While upgraded members have scammed in the past, it is more likely that someone who has just joined the community will try to scam and simply leave the forum after doing so, as that might be the main purpose of them joining the forum.

While I am upgrading to L33t sometime within the next couple of weeks, I would like to say that I agree with this rule to an extent, try putting together the money to upgrade to L33t if it is really important to you, you'll do it. Maybe you don't want to invest money into this community, why not try somewhere else.

Anyway, best wishes to you.

Sorry, but it doesn't matter what you think is fair.

It's not your forum.

Actually they are both free and paid. It depends whether you have Gold/Plus or not.

Thanks Mr. Nitpick.

Point still stands.

Online for Xbox = Paid

Online for PS3/4 = Free

Life isn't fair. Either way, they really aren't the same thing.

This is not FairForums.net. Go bitch to someone else about fairness.
