rudeman - May 1, 2014, 8:20 pm

EDIT: He's saying it was an offsite deal but it wasn't! Anyway he just admitted to scamming + I sent him the details of the account on HF Private Messages and clearly stated I wanted $40 in BTC in return! Some mod please view and tell him to answer to this thread!!

Proof it was on an on-site deal:

Obli - May 7, 2014, 6:07 am

Legit scam report. What DirtBike doesn't know is that since he PMed you, the deal originated from HF, it isn't an offsite deal

Obli - May 18, 2014, 5:50 am

No responses from the user.

If he claimed that he got hacked, then he should post on scam report for it to be resolved.

Hunting Rifle - June 7, 2014, 1:54 pm

He has seen the thread but not responded, obviously a scam.

He also made this <https://hackforums.net/showthread.php?tid=4271474> and he must have seen the link to the scam report from there as-well.

1k+ views & not resolved yet, Lol...

Understalker - July 28, 2014, 9:52 pm

Reported to IC3 for $40 and mentioned it was in Bitcoin, holy shit I have never laughed so hard irl.

Lil W?yne - July 29, 2014, 8:47 am

I mean its legit, but you are no better by harassing him saying you will get someone to "jack his shit". I understand you are mad, but harassing him won't get you your money any quicker. It probably makes him not even want to resolve it when you do that. I hope you get your stuff back. good luck.

He PM'd me two times saying he would pay me back but both of the times he didn't and just kept delaying it, He's very active in the marketplace as well, if he wanted to pay back he would. He obviously doesn't...
