Thread: Coke Rewards Giveaway

Froggy - May 2, 2014, 3:14 pm

My Coke Rewards is a customer loyalty marketing program for Coca-Cola soft drinks. Customers enter codes found on specially marked packages of Coca-Cola products on a website. Codes can also be entered "on the go" by texting them from a cell phone. These codes are converted into virtual "points" which can in turn be redeemed by members for various prizes or sweepstakes entries.

I have made several contests for these before, and now I am giving them away for free. These codes are obtained through my personal coca-cola product purchases, so they are 100% legitimate. You can spend these points to gain rewards, enter sweepstakes, support a good cause, donate to your school, or enter Instant Win contests.

You can go to the My Coke Rewards catalog to see just what prizes you can redeem with these points! I myself have spent points on a wireless mouse and a few other items.

NOTE: One per person per week.
