One, because it's not the first sticky and secondly because it's a paid sticky, so it doesn't mean anything.

Maybe you didn't know there have been stickies before in this section, but now you you know. I've never seen a paid sticky for a design service in this section of the forums before. However, I've only been here a year so I knew I would be taking a 'gamble' when I put that there. I'll take it off when I'm done with my orders today. Thanks for the heads up!

So please remove it! ?

Good luck with sales.

He owes me a thread design.

Can't wait to see it!

Do you have multiple Behance accounts or are you just ripping again?

<https://www.behance.net/gallery/16240719/SandPlaysGames-Youtube-Avatar> I haven't updated the thread design since I quit, as you called it "ripping". Yeah, I used that Minecraft avatar to show off what I can do because I used to do those a lot when I was in the 'YouTube' scene. If you couldn't tell, I kinda quit doing my shop and only do designs when I receive orders since I'm learning to be more creative with my designs. Then again, why do I need to justify myself to you? If you want to argue take it to a private message, no point on spamming a thread.

I decided to close my shop for now, I haven't accepted any orders and I haven't updated the thread in almost a month. If I open another shop it might not be until later this month.
