I can vouch for this transaction. I spoke to Maple all the way through it (because we are partners).

Scrandy - May 7, 2014, 2:01 pm

This looks legit, and Snorlax is legit so if he is partners with Maple that is good enough for me.

Hope you get this resolved.

'Fox - May 7, 2014, 11:44 pm

Leblanc just admitted he scammed me :

'Snorlax - May 7, 2014, 11:45 pm

Damn. LeBlanc admitted that he would not give MapleTree his money:

I barely recognize anyones name on here, but I recognize Snorlax. Trust these guys, and the proof is there. Best of luck.

I told you to remove the scam report, so i could send you the money. But. yea see that :)

You never said anything about removing the scam report so you can send me money. You said "If you could just wait few days you would receive your money, but you open the scam report already, so fuck that^^".

Also that's not how it works, you send the money then I close the scam report.

What he said basically means he will not send you the money. That makes him a scammer and he even admittes it.

Leblanc you should be friendlier. He did nothing wrong this is totally on your end.

I would and can be, but this guys are just stupid. Didnt omni say something like: "Only HF deals/PM/Threads can be used to open an scam report, skype is not allowed? That makes this scam-report invalid.

btw. i would pay you but you seem to not resolve this.

Why can't you just finish the deal and let him delete his thread afterwards? I'm sure Maple would close the thread until you sent him your part of the deal, because right now you're scamming him by not sending your pard of the deal.

And no. You can still originate a deal from Hack Forums and deal on Skype. There is nothing wrong with that.

This is a matter of doing the right thing. 25 euro is nothing for Maple. But let's not discuss the massive amount of money we make, but let's instead focus on you scamming him.

One grand per month? That's a bit off, but alright. Let's stick with 1k if that makes you happy, lol. Nobody on HF makes 20k per day. No. One.

<https://hackforums.net/member.php?action=profile&uid=119690> ask him for proof, this guy makes 15-23k each day. letme guess, thats your yearly income.

<https://hackforums.net/member.php?action=profile&uid=80618> ask him for proof, if he doesnt reply, ask omni for proof :) they know each other.

I know nokia is wealthy, but not 20k per day. Neither does SpK. At least not through HF. We could easily make a few grand per week, but we need much better equipment and we need to advertise on other sites as well. Currently we make only 1k according to you, which is all HF, and we only had a sticky for one week.

I'm also wondering why you didn't tell me your paypal was limited before I gave you the code? Did it just happen to get limited the day I gave you it?

Seems like a legit report bro, i feel sorry for you and i hope you will get your bucks back.

Tutorial - May 8, 2014, 3:29 pm

Legit report. It's a shame how many people take money that easily on here, only because they aren't stealing physically.

Yep... and they get away with it too.

itsmyard - May 9, 2014, 11:51 am

Wow LeBlanc is acting like a complete douche, why bring monthly income into this? You owe someone money, pay the money, don't beat around the bush talking about how much others earn.

Yep, it's sad how he tries to change the subject :P, I don't think i'll be seeing my 25 euros :(

It doesn't make it invalid when you're providing on-site evidence that this was you in the transaction. Also, you're a scammer. Give him what he wants and this will be closed, if you don't, you're scamming, and no one should deal with you. End of it.

It actually was on-site, he posted on my thread and PM'ed me. He was just looking for an excuse to not pay me, lol.

Driz. - May 11, 2014, 1:58 am

Legit scam report, this suck it had to happen to you.

Impervious. - May 11, 2014, 2:00 am

Indeed legit scam report and this attitude of him... god.

Bringing monthly income in this whilst not being capable of paying himself at this very moment. 0 common sense.

Goodlucky getting the money Maple ?

Yep, :\ what people would do for 25 euros these days.. lol

'Snorlax - June 19, 2014, 7:35 am

I just want to tell everyone that I sent LeBlanc a PM a few days ago and he didn't reply to it. He read it but ignored it.

Clear scammer there.

'Fox - November 11, 2014, 4:12 pm

Just posting to say that this is still not solved, don't know why it got removed from the scammers db.
