Thread: \$600 in a day in File.Ice.

?????I?? - May 8, 2014, 11:56 am

So recently I was told by a lot of people that I lie about making 5 figures in a month.

I had no other way to publicly show my earning, rather than the file.ice leader board, so I moved one of my websites into the sort of promotion that I do for my current business, and here is the outcome. I stopped using file.ice, just had a website or two getting me about $2000 or so a month, since I left CPA/PPD.

This should serve as a proof for the haters and non believers, and a motivation for the sane ones.

D4rk0 - May 8, 2014, 1:57 pm

You shouldn't care about the haters. You're the one enjoying the money!

Sometimes it becomes an act of necessity to face the haters. ?

Nice earning bro. I heard you're the man to know in the SEO/PPD world.

Ricky? - May 8, 2014, 7:50 pm

That is some nice earnings man. I remember trying to get into PPD I failed, I paid some guy $40 to make the website, video, program and everything plus HR views. I got like a couple of bucks, I suck at PPD.

SEO is more stable than YouTube.

Glad to know that. ?

I remember that you had a page about PPD etc. I subscribed for it, but with the time I forgot it ._.
What's the link again?

En1gma - May 9, 2014, 3:56 pm

I'm thinking of getting back into CPA in summer. Would you recommend ranking on google rather than youtube?

iNuke - May 10, 2014, 4:31 am

Awesome earnings brother, as always. ? Miss you.

ZuGgY - May 10, 2014, 4:47 am

It was named 'Learn To Earn Money'. I will be making it active once again.

I would highly suggest you to go for SEO. YouTube is not consistent, and unless and until you have a very unique niche your videos will always be flagged by competitors.

I actually didn't go back to PPD, it's just about proving something to someone. ?

To be honest I don't have the time to tutor personally, but I once had a project named 'Learn To Earn Money'. It was a subscription based website and I would post tutorials related to SEO, Video Marketing, Internet Marketing and etc every week, and I would also write tutorials requested by the members.

Might get that back, judging by the amount of PM that I am receiving from people to tutor them.

You have actually said the right thing. In CPA networks, I wouldn't even be within top 15-20 with $600/day.

Did I mention anywhere in the thread that I am offering help? On the other hand, I did reply to your first PM.

Im so glad that you make this kind of money sir :) I can only wish to achieve half of it ! :)

$600 on FI is insane in my honest opinion, great job!

Why would he help someone? He probably doesn't have time and learned on his own.

You're an annoying user. You constantly PM'd me as well asking for help, and when I told you there were certain things I didn't want to share with you, you flipped out.

Keep it up OP, always good to see others monetizing online.

People should actually try to understand that no one in their sane minds would give out delicate information about their promotion/techniques. I don't even understand how people manage to ask such questions at the first place.
