Has anyone started watch this anime yet? There is only 5 episodes so far, but the series has been confirmed for 26 episodes.

Personally, I was a bit skeptical at first, but from the 5 episodes I've seen, I think it could develop into a worthwhile watch.

I'd recommend AA check it out if you haven't already!

The light novels are pretty well known, you should check those out if you really like the story. It explains everything better.

I see the same cycle repeating that I'm starting to lose interest :/

It seems alright at the moment but the main character's too OP which may cause some balancing issues later.

OP main characters are the best (Hagure Yuusha, Mondaiji tachi, etc.)

Although currently I just see this as #1 Brocon + #1 Siskon living together :/

It's somewhat interesting.

Spoiler \(Click to View\) Although I'm hoping it's not the incest ending.

Spoiler \(Click to View\) It isn't. He only has brotherly love/feelings for his sister.

At first I was like "This show is so good! omg I love the MC!", but as the episodes went on it feels like they are gonna drop the original things they were hinting at, do a random hunting ark to explain about the organisation he is staying away from to then smoothly come back and explain the beginning.

I just feel like the pacing is starting to slow down.

There is a lot to explain, and the series is 26 episodes. I feel the action will start to pick up again now.

I want to like this, but I really don't. I'm going to continue watching, but probably gonna start reading the light novel ahead.
