Thread: [\[Medium\]SQLi challenge for beginners\[Medium\]](#)

noalias420 - May 11, 2014, 1:07 pm

Well, I decided to post one of these. All you need to do is bypass the WAF, which isn't really hard. There are several methods to do this, so you can choose any.

Display your name on the page in red and all the tables in the current database, nothing hard because this is supposed to be for beginners.

Here's my go at it (I didn't use a running number because too lazy):

And finally, here is the url.

I won't add any solvers because that's no fun.

Go go go.

Oh, btw. If you need any help regarding this, hit me up with a pm.

Ah, it's nice to see there is still some life in this section.
I may start posting more challenges soon.
