Judge Dredd - May 12, 2014, 6:30 pm

[Video: <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=aiCDfVhxKc8>]

I'm waiting in my cold cell, when the bell begins to chime.
Reflecting on my past life and it doesn't have much time.
'Cause at 5 o'clock they take me to the Gallows pole,
The sands of time for me are running low.

Mother Fuckers!

When the priest comes to read me the last rites,
Take a look through the bars at the last sight,
Of a world that has gone very wrong for me.

Can it be that there's some sort of error.
Hard to stop the surmounting terror.
Is it really the end, not some crazy dream.

Somebody please tell me that I'm dreaming,
It's not easy to stop from screaming,
The words escape me when I try to speak.
Tears they flow but why am I crying,
After all I'm not afraid of dying.
Don't I believe that there never is an end.

As the guards march me out to the courtyard,
Somebody cries from a cell "God be with you".
If there's a God then why has he let me die?

As I walk all my life drifts before me,
Though the end is near I'm not sorry.
Catch my soul, it's willing to fly away.

Mark my words believe my soul lives on.
Don't worry now that I have gone.
I've gone beyond to seek the truth.

So when you know that your time is close at hand.
Maybe then you'll begin to understand,
Life down here is just a strange illusion.

Hallowed be thy name
A group of respected individuals that don't necessarily set out to impress, but to set an example.

You should definitely take this opportunity seriously and buy in. Infamous is one of my favorite groups and the member base is very much like a family. Don't miss out.

D?vil - May 12, 2014, 7:32 pm

I recommend everyone who is thinking about this to do it, Infamous is a great group with a very active subforum.

This is a great deal!

Ricky? - May 12, 2014, 7:52 pm

This is a great price to join this group. I might apply in the next couple of days. Will keep this in mind.

Rigel - May 12, 2014, 8:22 pm

Sigh. I always wanted to join this group.

Ursidae - May 14, 2014, 12:39 pm

I may not be sitting on a load of rep currently, but I'm a long time member and since I became active again I've contributed a lot. Everything I see made by this group is so high quality, I would be honored to be part of it, and I think I could contribute.

I will be applying officially once I get my next paycheck.

I just wish I had the money. :(
Good luck to everyone tough!

Username: John Locke

Age: 18

Skills:

The most important of my many skills is my knowledge of graphics and my writing skill; a combination that allows me to produce extremely high quality e-books and graphics. My currently released e-book "MobileMoney+" is the highest quality e-book (at least in a visual sense) that I have ever seen anywhere on HF (I can send a download link in a PM for review), and even it was somewhat of a rush job and I didn't get to put as much time into it as I would've liked to, so it could've been even better. I have an exceedingly complete knowledge of photoshop and its inner-workings; I can create original work and edit existing work. I can edit and correct photographs, and I can create high quality original graphics. Here are a couple examples of my previous works that I whipped up for free:

<http://i.minus.com/iwGCXzfWolAil.gif>

<https://i.imgur.com/WydjSEt.png>

In addition to my skills with Photoshop, and After Effects I am a good writer. I have acceptable grammar, I use punctuation correctly, and I try to be succinct. I also have a functional knowledge of HTML, CSS, JavaScript, and I've dabbled in web design (an example of one of my unconventional layout attempts can be found here: <http://flapperhacker.com/>). Front end design is what I specialize in.

When it comes to hacking I have experience in social engineering and the acquisition of personal accounts. I also have some experience with doxing and information gathering. This isn't nearly as strong a skill for me as graphics is, but it something that I can do and something that I've found useful.

Why I want to join Infamous:

I've been working with Photoshop for a few years now, and am completely self-taught, aside from when I was just beginning and I relied on tutorials to teach me where everything was located. After I got a feel for the program I began trying things myself. If I saw something that I liked I would try and replicate it myself without any tutorials. I did this for a long time until I became comfortable with my skills and knowledge of Photoshop's features. Now I try and use those skills to help people in the community – I never charge for my services because I'm trying to set a new standard of quality here on the forums, a standard where pricing is actually proportional to quality, and vice versa. Somebody shouldn't have to pay $20 for something that I came up with in 2 minutes. I feel that being part of this group will help me set this standard through example. I've seen members of Infamous around the forum, and I see that they are respected, and that they are also somewhat expected to set an example. I think that if I was part of Infamous that I could use that respect, and my example to make HackForums a (corniness aside...) better place.

I've been a member for a very long time now, and although I was inactive for quite some time, I'm back for good. I should have more rep considering how long I've been here, but I blame that on my spell of inactivity, and I'm sure that such a prominent group knows that rep isn't everything. I've always considered this community a very valuable place, there is such diversity in people and products, and I always am amazed and fascinated by it. However the HackForums community at large is just that, large – too large, in fact, for me to feel connected to it in anymore than a superficial way, and that's one of the main reasons why I'd like to join a group. I want to be part of a smaller, closer knit community so that I can actually make a measurable difference, or a community where I can participate, learn, teach, and grow; and everywhere I turn people say that Infamous is the group for exactly that.

One of the other big reasons that I would like to join Infamous is because I want to start getting into the sales community here, and I believe that if I was supported by/affiliated with Infamous it would greatly help. I am a trustworthy member, and everything in my profile reflects that, but sometimes people are still hesitant to do business with me because I don't have 1000+ rep, or because I'm not affiliated with a group.

I want to partner up with people with different skillsets then mine and combine our knowledge to create something we couldn't create alone. For example, I'd like to create a UI for a program another member has written, or a sales thread for a product of theirs, or design an e-book for content they have written, to list some possible examples. I want collaboration, because I'm sick of doing only things that I personally can do, I'd like to expand my horizons so that I can learn new things.

Thank you for reading, and I hope to be hearing from you soon!

Why do you want to join Infamous? (500 word minimum): I know I am not that active here but honestly the reason I don't stay on here more is because I don't have a group of people to hangout with. So if I could join I can do anything the group entails, follow all the rules, and communicate with everyone in the group. I now have a reason to be on here all the time if I am accepted into this prestigious group. I have the money to pay to get in and I have a pretty wide range of knowledge all I am asking is for a chance I promise I will not let you down.

Thank you for your consideration.

Age: I don't like to give away my age on HF, hope you don't mind.

Skills: (What talent's do you have that will help us?): Computing, Business, Marketing, Coding, etc.

Why do you want to join Infamous? (500 word minimum): The groups that you have led have always caught my eye, as soon as I joined HF Complexity was one of the only groups I wanted to be in. I ended up joining Complexity after around 3 months of joining HF and it was an amazing group, then it changed to Infamous and here I am now. I would like to join Infamous to be with the members of it again, it was an active and HQ group.

I have only been on HF a short amount of time, but when I started out I was mainly here for Computing. I am not here mainly for business, and marketing. I was in Complexity for the Business / Marketing Sector, and it was an amazing Sector I was just kicked when Complexity turned into Infamous. Being in Complexity always made me look more HQ, because I was in a group that Judge Dredd himself led. I would like to once again join this HQ group and be with the community of it once more.

Another reason I would like to join Infamous is for better business. Sales are a good thing, and I could potentially partner up with someone to make a product, etc. Doing things alone is not as good as having a business partner, someone to disagree with your bad ideas, someone who has business knowledge, or whatever he/she might have to offer. I am open to business partner PMs, but no one has really caught my eye. I think that in a HQ group like Infamous I will have no trouble finding someone to be a business partner.

Infamous is basically a respect group, if you are in it Judge Dredd has accepted you, therefore you are basically a god :D. But seriously, Infamous has always been a HQ group, and it would help with everyday things. I have always like to help people, when I started out of HF basically all I did was help people for free. I still do this, if you send me a PM asking for help you will get a reply as soon as possible. What I basically help with was mainly computing things, but I also helped in the Beginning Hacking Section for a while. I think that joining Infamous would show that I am still here, and that I am trying to be a HQ member to the community.

Another reason I want to join Infamous, is because Bugga is a leader. She is very friendly, and even though we haven't talked that much we have had some conversations over the months. I have a high respect for Bugga, and I feel that any group she is a leader of is a HQ group without question. The only other leaders I know are Tibit and Judge Dredd, I haven't seen much from the other leaders, but I am sure they will be good leaders and do there jobs. Hopefully I can be accepted into Infamous, and show what I have to offer it.

Why do you want to join Infamous? (500 word minimum):

I have been a self-taught programmer since the age of 11-12, and I feel I have a lot to contribute to the group, I love co-operating with people and I love socializing. I have always had friends in infamous that have told me how active the group is, and how nice the people are that are in it.

When I first started becoming more active on HF I always looked up to everyone in the infamous group, and it helped me strive to becoming a better member, I always liked to think about becoming an infamous member, simply because I admired the sophisticated individuals in the group, and always loved the idea of being part of such a smart community.

Another reason that lead me to writing this application is that I want to get to know some of the members I have looked up to in the infamous group, because without them I most likely wouldn't be the member I am today and for that I am incredibly grateful.

If I get accepted into Infamous I will be sure to be as active as I can and hopefully set as good as an example as the members I looked up to did

Why do you want to join Infamous? (500 word minimum): Infamous has stood out to me as one of the highest quality groups ever since it rebranded. The combination of the well designed userbar, and the select members that are actually accepted make me aware that this isn't just another temporary group. I've found that joining groups has been the only real way to make new friends on the site. I've made a few friends that I still talk to today back when Tech Sperts was around, but it's been difficult to connect to other members when you're having to take the awkward step of private messaging them to chat. Besides the couple of friends from Tech Sperts, there's only about seven or so members that I would consider friends that are on the site that brought me on Hackforums. Meeting new friends and spreading my expertise about Minecraft and Minecraft servers is something that I believe Infamous would be able to provide.

In my opinion the greatest tool a person can have is knowledge, and from what I have seen from the past/current members of the group knowledge is in abundance. Skills: (What talent's do you have that will help us?):

Over the couple of years I've spent here on hackforums I've gone through many phases of learning. I started out with the classic RATs and SQLi defacement, but came to realize there was a hell of a lot more to learn. I spent some time learning how to find and exploit vulnerabilities in different websites, but that led me to a whole new side of the Internet. I realized how much money there was to be made online, and I wanted to be apart of that.

I pushed the risky hacking business to the side (Hopefully, but I bought BlackShades back in the day with my PayPal :) and dove head first into the monetizing game. I dipped my toes into the PTC website business, and I've created many different niche websites earning me a nice side income on top of school. After graduating high school I decided to take a web design certificate. My dream is to own multiple websites which earn me a healthy income to live off, which is why I chose the web design program. The knowledge gained from the certificate so far has helped me out a ton in the Internet monetizing world. I'm hoping to continue on this path, and hopefully bring some of my own knowledge into the private section of Infamous.

Why do you want to join Infamous? (500 word minimum):

My motto is life long learning, as without knowledge intake what would be the point to living? I have obtained quite a bit of knowledge throughout my time on HF, but I realize I still have a lot to learn. I feel as though getting into Infamous would be my next step to becoming a smarter individual, as from what I can see the group is full of very knowledgeable members. Out of all the different groups on these forums, Infamous has always caught my eye. There are always low quality people who become part of a group, and bring down the overall quality of said group. From what I can see, Infamous is far from that. I don't think I've ever seen a low quality person being part of Infamous, which is a lot more than I can say about a few other groups. Overall with the requirements to be accepted, the users seem very prestigious and far from arrogant.

I would be honored to represent Infamous and all that it stands for. I am always on the lookout for new business partners, and I feel the private section would help me find just that. After all, those in Infamous aim to set an example rather than just gain fame. Those are exactly the innovative minds I love teaming up with, and I feel as though this group would help me stay as high quality as possible which I always aim for. I have the funds and ideas to put my projects into action, but 2 minds are always greater than 1.

Thanks for your time, I look forward to hearing back from you JD.

"one guy was full of shit"

"one guy"

"full of shit"

LOL ?

On a more serious note, 22k group value, firm, seems like a good offer then. ? Make the most of it I guess.
