Thread: Battle anyone? \(3D Design\)

Originality - May 17, 2014, 2:31 pm

I'm currently learning more about creating more realistic images in Cinema 4D. I would love to match my progress with others and have a nice competition in Cinema 4D (you can use your 3D program if different), and if you want some after effects in Photoshop.

If you'd like to just post here/pm me! Thank you!

If my cousin were on this forum he'd wreck you!
LOL. Best of luck finding a competitor

Im up for the challenge. Let me know ?

Originality - May 19, 2014, 6:02 am

I was starting to think nobody would post! Okay Sniper, what program do you plan on using? And are we going to do a building/landscape/or what?

Sniper - May 19, 2014, 7:59 am i will be using solidworks x64 premium. I was thinking of doing a mobile phone?

Originality - May 19, 2014, 8:29 am

That would be really interesting. Should we both make a mobile phone, or at least an electronic device?

Also, is it possible to record your screen for this? One so there is no cheating on both sides and plus it would be cool to show those who vote the process we went through to create of images.

I suppose any gadget would work as its about the quality not the subject. i can do screenies of the stages if thats ok?

Originality - May 19, 2014, 9:14 am

Yea that's fine man. When should we have the due date be?

Sniper - May 19, 2014, 9:41 am

Im easy on the due date you pick ?

Im finished mine, so any time is good. Let me know when your doing this.

Sniper

I just have to finish a project I'm doing right now and a 15 page research paper, so two days I'll start most likely.

iDuL - May 19, 2014, 6:05 pm

I'll be standing by to see how you both perform!
Best of luck to the both of you.
