Vouch for this user! From talking to him whilst designing his thread, I can confirm that he most definitely knows what he's doing about both doxing and detracing! If your information is anywhere online, he will find it, and he knows how to erase it, too! Don't hesitate to buy this.

It really depends on a number of certain factors, although this isn't a support thread. If you have any questions hit me up with a PM.

Xepher The Cat - May 22, 2014, 1:54 pm

No vouch for Infer, he doxed me. He leaked all my info out on Pastebin.

Of course, and you don't pay a cent until we've gone through the doxing process and I pull up information.
