Thread: Adam | uid=1660795 | Leaking HF products using rep to cover it up

Sur Justice - May 24, 2014, 8:22 am

Oke well, I was reading this thread.

<https://hackforums.net/showthread.php?tid=4245806>

And I basically stated something along the lines of this.

(I cant totally remember since the OP has changed the thread).

Adam has his own forum called: UltimateForum

On this "UltimateForum" he created a thread in a leaking section.

this is the thread he created,

Spoiler \(Click to View\)

Here you can see he is giving out a snapchat bruteforcer, how nice isn't it?

Well after the OP of the thread downloaded it he immediately saw that the program was leaked.

Once upon opening the OP saw this

This looked very familiar to him and he went on to search on HF.

this thread was found,

<https://hackforums.net/showthread.php?tid=4006053>

he created a thread stating ADAM is in fact a leaker and that was it.

The reason for him to create the thread was because adam previously - repped him with some friends (adam couldn't - rep so he neutralled) and send the OP an pm to "resolve the issue".

I went on looking at the OP profile and saw that his rep changed from - to + and that the thread was changed to "misunderstanding - please close". I do not understand how this could've been an misunderstanding since the evidence is clear. Probably the OP didn't have the balls to tell Adam to fuck off and stop leaking HF products.

So I created this thread.

Link to original thread: <https://hackforums.net/showthread.php?tid=4245806>

Also, Adam stated that he did in fact pm the owner of the product apologizing. Well I think that is mature of him, but I still believe he did leak an hf item and he should be punished for doing so, you can't just say sorry because he got caught. I am sure that if he didn't get caught he would still be buying products on HF to leak them on his forum.

proof adam is owner of the forum:

Proof of the fact that the OP is now getting + rep instead of - one of the reps is still remaining, probably because the person is not online at the moment.

Link to adam:

<https://hackforums.net/member.php?action=profile&uid=1660795>

Link to the op:

<https://hackforums.net/member.php?action=profile&uid=1968914>

I know this might be a little weird but I have had enough of the "rep abuse / leaking" adam bought himself out of this mess because he and his friends are able to rep a member.

Adam you deserve what is coming to you, and I hope it is a ton of shit.

Have a nice day.

I didn't want to because i don't wanna get involved in this, i've been banned for 5 times, and i don't wanna get a 6th one

A?d?am - May 24, 2014, 11:24 am

Clearly OP doesn't have a brain.

Also it's not rep abuse and I was also UNAWARE It was an item from HF and once I found out, I removed it.

NOTE: Please post proof where I state I bought it from HF. I told you once I found it off-site.

In my opinion he did not download it from another website. As clearly in his forum post he says he does not have the "thread design" If he can explain that it will sound legit. Also in his thread on ultimate forums he claims the exact price (plus one penny) Found on the original hackforums thread. Somehow he knew the price.

Poutine - May 24, 2014, 12:40 pm

Alright lets make something clear here.

In the leaked thread you said its a 20$ worth program but you got it for free. How do you know its 20$ worth if you downloaded it from another leak? Also you said you bought it and now you say it was free explain plz. Jake Miller your friend also said you got it for "free".

Plz be clear, you bought it from someone else ?

Where did he put that statement? I've seen where he originally found the link, it says the program was 20 there.

why does it matter? u're leaking products. it's even worse if you're downloading leaked products, and then re-distributing them and taking credit for the leaks, lol.

Nothing against you my man, just looking at what is presented to me.

I never said you purchased the item. However evidence does show you knew it was a hackforums item and therefore are breaking rules.

Also saying you could have magically made up a number is not even close to a good argument. First of all if you made up a number tell us. Don't try different excuses until one works. Second-the number you picked just happens to be the exact value of the item, sounds like to much of a coincidence.

bs?

the bs are your posts. you don't go around leaking people's shit regardless of it being a HF product or not. you're just not to be trusted, you scum.

I'll rephrase it for you.

"I won't be replying anymore because I know I'm at fault and I'm retarded for leaking people's products. But it's ok, I paid for my Infamous entrance, so I'm HQ."

?????? ???? - May 24, 2014, 1:09 pm

Let's be honest here, even if you disregard the whole case about leaking HF items, you still have a forum with leaks on it. That right there is a huge hit to your cred man. I would suggest not allowing leaks on your forum. Other forums never sell anything that isn't sold on HF, so most of those leaks are either ebooks or programs from HF

Edit: user in question has told me he has removed the leak section from his own forum. I tip my hat to you. This adds to your argument of innocence

You don't understand the thread...

You're at fault. No one really cares about how others obtained it, but how you re-distributed it.

If your discontent is bothering you, make your own thread to point fingers.
