Thread: [\[Odd Scam Attempt\]\[CS: GO Knife\] Bethany Mota - UID - 1449790 \[Payment Not Recieved\]](#)

D????????????????ark - May 28, 2014, 8:17 pm

So this little shit is an odd one, he posted a thread seen here:

<https://hackforums.net/showthread.php?tid=4254364>

He was selling a Case Hardened Karambit and another knife.

I decided I was going to inquire about the karambits and how much they would cost.

And this is how the PM's went.

<http://prntscr.com/3nlb0m>

After talking on steam for a while about other shit, we finally decided we would deal. He was ok with going first to me as I didn't trust any of those steam rep people and have never used that website.

We agreed to use a HF middleman previous to the deal but decided against it as it would take so long for a paypal payment to be held.

Anyway, after we got down to it, we traded on steam.

All was fine, he gave the knife and I gave the money.

A few moments later he messages me, says he didnt get the money and he wants his knife back "Right now!!".

I show him my payment details and recent transactions.

<http://prntscr.com/3nl8d8>

<http://prntscr.com/3nl90h>

He proceedes with this story that he "Didn't get the money" etc etc.

And to give his knife back.

<http://prntscr.com/3nlc10>

This users attempt to scam or something to get his knife back, just doesn't add up to me, i dont understand what method he is going about it but it didn't work.

He now claimed to make a deal dispute thread against me and how I never paid him. ._.

Lets just see how this all pans out.

Just watch out for this user.

If this user Join.me's proof, that he sent the payment.

Which he will not because apparently he does not Join.me "With Scammers"

Marky Marky - May 28, 2014, 8:22 pm

This report is valid. Good luck settling this.

Can't really back you up on this, did not see any proof of user telling you hes/her paypal email.

YeezySaint - May 28, 2014, 8:26 pm

Your getting all of your friends to stop by and say that your report is correct even though it is not.

Sorry individual, I do not know or associate with this user but it seems this is a legit scam report as Paypal can never make a mistake on a sent payment especially with a cost that high.

Post a picture of your recent PayPal transactions, and then you two can talk...

OP clearly made a legit deal, especially considering "Bethany" can't provide any proof to say otherwise.

Exactly, with out proof that you did not receive payment, your word is nothing but a false statement.

This is the counter-thread in case any of you missed it.

<https://hackforums.net/showthread.php?tid=4254771> not much proof inside, if I had to decide who's right I'd say dark is, as he's showing proof :D

YeezySaint - May 28, 2014, 10:02 pm

I have filed a report against the user's paypal.

<https://gyazo.com/14566f89f17fda53ab2f1571c31c637a>

User sent me 35c for another Skin before the transaction.

svensonic1 - May 28, 2014, 11:08 pm

Eclectic - May 29, 2014, 5:39 am

Haha, that's just stupid. Does he really want you to believe that you didn't send the money lol. Nice buy btw.

Rep aint everything, I have bad reps also from when I was a noob on the forum. But it comes down to the person itself :)

You don't prove in this screenshot that the paypal email in question is related to your picture.

you seem really nice to be honest man (:

+plus - May 29, 2014, 2:58 pm

Both users need to upload videos, or join.me sessions while refreshing the transaction history.

Inspect element is nothing new.

Zink - May 29, 2014, 11:40 pm

He wont get banned, people dont get banned on HF for scamming.

But atleast everyone who deals with him now can see this.

Lis?hén - August 2, 2014, 4:40 pm

Not legit report. If you don't want to show us proof on live, the fact is that you are maybe idiot or a scammer.

Also there is 7 other scam report open against you.. You deserve my neutral rep cause, we are not idiot, you know ?

Show us live proof and I remove my rep.

Geekie benji - August 8, 2014, 9:53 am

Better go cry elsewhere man, you have scammed me a knife before, then a few months later you come here try to write a scam report? Just that how much members suddely care when a user with alot of "rep" write something, and when a new guy does it. I really hope this scammer comes away with it as easy as you did!
