Thread: The NEXT biggest money making method \(like ewhoring\)

splunk - May 29, 2014, 10:36 pm

I want to start off the thread by saying, I am honestly not trying to advertise for my product in any way. I do want to say, I am convinced I have developed the next "big thing" in money-making here on HackForums.

The first big thing I remember seeing, was eWhoring. It wasn't really a method, but rather a brand new CATEGORY of earning money on the internet. It was a little unethical, but it served justice. Any time we can serve justice to those who deserve it, and make a couple bucks, we have a golden method.

I have found something that is EXACTLY this. It's biting someone in the ass who deserves it, while making some money. I actually wrote an ebook, which has the method in it. Although I'm not the seller, I get many people asking me for hints on what it is because they don't want to buy it. Well, anyone who asks, I will link them to this thread I guess, because this is the biggest hint I can give.

So how big will my method get?

I really don't know. I'm sorry if I sound like a huge douchebag, I'm just really stoked to see how far this goes. I am honestly convinced it will become a very big thing on HackForums, and I really can't wait to see what people do with it, and how they are able to perfect it. Maybe it will even have its' own section someday. Who knows.

This isn't even an advertisement for my ebook, so please don't think that. I'm not even the seller. I am just really convinced the method IN the ebook will be extremely huge on HackForums someday (maybe in the near future).

I'm a little tired right now, so my post isn't going to be very thorough or detailed, but I'll just get to the point.

I have sort of, developed a brand new money making system that has never been seen before on this forum. I have browsed the monetizing forums for days and have not seen anything like this before. I have also spent countless dollars on eBooks on this website, and I have never seen anyone get remotely close to what I have discovered.

Bottom line is, I have been using this method for about 3 months now and have not told anyone about it, not even my closest friends. It may not be an ASS LOAD of money, but I have made about 2,500$ doing this. I am 17 years old, and right before I started doing this, I wasn't really active on the computer or the internet anymore.

This method is a method where you can just log on whenever you want and make some money. No surveys, no ewhoring, no ppd. Like I said, I personally haven't seen this method before. It's ridiculously simple, but hard to stumble upon, but makes you lots of cash with very minimal work.

NOW, I will admit this method is pretty shady, and that means something coming from me. It does make you a lot of money, and I truly believe it will become a newly adopted monetizing technique on this forum.

Anyways, that's all. No bullshit. I'm sorry if I sounded like a huge douche, I'm just excited, and very eager to see the future in this.

Hope you all have an amazing day ?

ebook selling is for poor kids who want money. Fact.

But keeping trying to convince the dumbasses on here to buy it. It works cause u cant fix stupid lmfao

KaisMA - May 30, 2014, 9:31 am

Can u give me the e-book?

Will be nice.

Thanks.

splunk - May 30, 2014, 11:09 am

Thank you both for the replies.

@KaisMA: I am not the seller

lust4money - May 31, 2014, 3:23 am can i have the ebook or the link whatever it is? Might help me . Sounds skeptical but there's nothing wrong to try.

Thanks in advance. hoping to recieve a reply.

Method:

1. Build hype
2. Build more hype
3. build hype x 3 more
4. don't post for 2 weeks
5. build a super hyped thread
6. make users jizz their pants
7. sell ebook with method
8. make $$ then get exiled

Vouch for this method. I have tried this out and the outcome was success.

I am really amazed with this, and the altitude that users are taking this to. Just got off Skype with a guy who is securing a 1,000$ payment from his contact. This is the truth, haha. I almost want to tell everyone this method but I fear of hyper saturation

Only tell me then ;)

jk, if you can make lots off it then go out there and do it. If you want it to be popular on hackforums though, people will need to know the method.

I'm slowly going to bring it on to the forum. I have no doubt it will become a huge thing soon

NoobCell - May 31, 2014, 12:32 pm

I'm actually quite confused by this thread.

You say you have developed the method, made a ton of money, made it into a eBook, you've told nobody about the method and yet your not the seller of the eBook? if your not the seller then who is? and if someone else is the seller that means you had to have told someone about the method.

Only 10 people know. And that's a guarantee.

I've only told the method to my closest friend here

Tenaxium - May 31, 2014, 12:36 pm

Vouch. I have the next big thing also, I made $100k this week! Just PM me to buy my eBook ($100)

Argyle - May 31, 2014, 12:38 pm

You are giving away a free E-Book? This is the wrong section then. Snip this thread and post it here:

Free Money Making Ebooks

splunk - May 31, 2014, 12:39 pm

No! Not giving away a free ebook. All this is, is a thread saying I have found a new monetization technique! This is a monetizing discussion section :)

rapidfire08 - May 31, 2014, 12:47 pm

If you really are earning big and don't want to share it no point in making a thread why don't you enjoy and spend your money the way you want to :)

I skimmed your thread when I clicked on it. I do not think you told us a spec of what you are doing or what you have found.

There is no discussion. What is there to discuss?

???E? - May 31, 2014, 12:59 pm

Actually its not the correct section as Argyle said, you are just here to brag, theres a section for this.

The best thing someone has typed in a long time!

I'm not going to spend too much time on you but I gotta give you some credits because that was one of the better sales letters that I've seen through my time here on Hack forums, however you didn't have me sold.

All I see in your wall of text is "Hey guys new method not saturated I'm not here to sell (Actually I am) very good money making method, unsaturated, next big thing check my signature OH and wait, I'm not here to sell.. did I get you again? I'm just a terrible liar. Of course I'm here to sell"

This section is for fucking discussions only, I didn't navigate here to read about the e-book that you are selling, you could say that you aren't the seller.. well explain this:

I'm sorry, I can see right through what you are doing. As always, you are always free to prove me wrong. Until now all I can see is another attempt of selling a product outside the marketplace.
