Thread: Allowed?

So i'm not upgraded member and i shouldn't be able to post images in my signature. So i will just post it manually like now. Is this allowed?

Novo - May 31, 2014, 9:43 am

I guess you could as there is no rules against it, But it will be a bit of a pain in the ass adding it to each reply you make.

I'm pretty sure this is considered spamming, but don't take my word for it.

Josylvio - May 31, 2014, 9:45 am

This is allowed I guess, but you're not allowed to post pictures in every section of HF, I believe you're not allowed to post pictures in the lounge for example.

I think pictures at lounge are fine. I don't see any rules against it.

No this would be bypassing the rule and you will be banned for doing so and all posts containing the image will be removed.

Talu - May 31, 2014, 9:49 am

I don't think this is allowed. Even if it was, it's long doing it every time.

Project Null - May 31, 2014, 9:51 am

Alright thank you guys. I'm still waiting for staff reply...

Just edit your posts and don't do it again.

Eclectic - May 31, 2014, 9:54 am

I bet if you hadn't told anyone and didn't have "deepwebz" in your signature, nobody would have noticed lol.

Yes.

They won't ban you for fixing your posts.

Just try to work towards getting an upgrade and you can eventually do this. Earn the money by doing simple tasks or participate in member contests. Like others have stated this wouldn't be allowed, I have seen people getting warning levels because of doing this. It is good that you are ensuring yourself now instead of later, though.

Act HQ and one day you'll upgrade to a strong and big man.
