Vouch for Plutonium, very fast and professional service, payment was smooth and no issues or problems since!

Would definitely use him again if required!

People actually spend money for setting up a rat and portforward? I use to do this for free (100 + members) when i first joined hf, you must be desperate for money.

Anyways GL with sales.

Same here, until I realised that I could actually make money out of it. I get nearly 5-6 customers a day, a.k.a 30 euro or so a day, so I am not complaining. People want professional service, so they come to me ^^

Vouch for my boy Pluto right here.

This dude's been doing this stuff since he joined, don't hesitate to deal with him.

Hm, odd. I haven't received your friend invite yet. Did everything manage out well?

Service back open. Due to the fact that I am indeed a poor student and need money desperately.

Skype is in first post, add me if you need help. 5 euro per set up :)
