BogoExclusive - June 4, 2014, 9:05 am

Thanks for the support guys, I will continue to update my thread with previous works once someone deems it would help. I hope to help you guys out any future orders. Cheap Price - High Quality. Who can beat that?

Kids? - June 4, 2014, 9:13 am

Huge vouch for Bogo. Great designs for a great price. Don't hesitate to purchase!

Jack Bauer - June 4, 2014, 9:16 am

Good looking shit.

I don't understand this ToS "Never share the designs you purchase, this includes psd as well." many people have it.

I mean why do you give a shit if I share it? Since I already paid for it?

Also please check this thread:

<https://hackforums.net/showthread.php?tid=4266821&pid=40484525#pid40484525> My request is there ;p

Thanks for the business also.

Just bought some graphics from this brilliantly minded user,
will post the end result!

EDIT:

Take a look at my YouSpread thread! This guy's graphics are sick!

Mercator - June 6, 2014, 8:49 am

He works fast, i was pleased with the logo and his turnaround time. To be honest, he isn't very polite, but then again, politeness is not on the top of my list when purchasing a service like this, and he did indeed deliver. So, this is my honest review, the good and the not so great, but ultimately, he gets a vouch from me and i am satisfied. :)

Cheers!

Merc

MindOfLogic - June 6, 2014, 1:55 pm

Vouch, got my graphics really quick and good service.

MercJust to be clear, and honest. The client initially promised to pay in 1 or 2 days and so I began working on the logo and finished in a matter of time. The client then said he would pay in 12 hours, after 12 hours passed, yet another excuse came up and he said when his dad woke up in Germany he'd pay in a couple of hours. After another day, he then told me he borrowed $10 from his friend. Under these conditions, you can't always remain as cool as you want.

But I like his business and I wouldnt mind working with him again.

There are really no limits to his work. Take a look at my thread he made me, by clicking on my sig. It is quite impressive and worth the money.

Yep.
His thought process is basically as long as he doesn't get caught, it doesn't matter.
