Well the fact that i in no way shape or form broke any rules of HF, means you first of all can go fuck yourself. :-)

Enjoy the neg rep. I could report this thread as abusive and false scammer report pointing to the phrase "scum bug" , but unlike you i'm not a whiney little hippocritical grandma.
So you have written approval from owners of exploited computers your selling ??

Also i believe your a multi-accounter.

On top of that - I am offering RIG now for the low weekly price of.....$140. So up yours retard.

I have NOT ONE unhappy customer. Nada, Zero, KaputniK, Nothing....All my customers are either wealthy, satisfied and/or both.

Yours however are not looking that great.....in fact i see they are posting image pics of how shit you are.

Talented at not putting up with bullshit maybe.

Can we keep this thread on topic, and not based on personal opinions of other users.

This looks like a legit warning, OP.

A legit warning for what ?

What exactly are you being protected from ?

I'm not tying anyone down and forcing them to rent an ek....

You're reselling a product without due arrangements. In the scenario that someone purchases from you and needs help, they would be unable to receive the support they may otherwise obtain from the original seller. That, and you're taking a cut of the original sellers sales, money that they could have otherwise earned for their work.
