You know any other languages?

(Jun 9, 2014 02:46 PM)Sabre Wrote: [\[CITE\]](#) So you've been coding .NET since you were 9 and from your profile you're 23 years old. That would give you 14 years .NET programming experience (also weird considering the .NET framework was released in 2002/12 years ago) and yet you're asking basic questions in the .NET section?

My apologies. I am legitimately on vacation, and was only now available to refund. You have been refunded in full, and I hope we can work something out when I get back.

IF YOU NEED TO CONTACT ME, PM ME ON HF (some people claim they can't pm me, so get somebody trustworthy to send one for you)! I will not be available on skype for the majority of the vacation! I will be back in 6 days.

Hey mate.

I start classes again in September for java programming and I will need you then for school assignments and what not.

I have Paypal and bitcoin. I can pay in either.

Let me know if I can hire you starting in September.

Also, do you know all the different algorithms in java?

Thanks..

Let me know your Skype. I'll add you
