I was lurking Youtube and found this video. One of the best done AMVs out there IMO. I can't even begin to imagine how much work went into this.

The first half was sort of boring. I did like the second half alot though.

A lot of work was put into it, not the best, but it definitely brought up some good memories.

The video portion must have taken a ton of time.

The audio sounds like it was done in fucking 32kbps mp3 video = WTF level I am betting this was for a pro comp at a con.

Music was meh

Over all 9/10 because that video is nuts.
