Nice. I love how you remixed the song too. Gave me a good laugh. Some kid tried to DOX me, got my phone number, and called me about 40 times @ 4 AM on a Sunday night, before I had some exams. Needless to say, what I did to him... probably can't be discussed on HF.

I have no public DOX'es. Since then, I've setup fake identities for all of my aliases.

Nothing. Nothing at all.

He had no reason to dox me.

But still haha it's funny as shit how he threatens to swat me and i live next to a damn fire station.

Did you make that fake dox. And nice remix, made me chuckle.

Autononymous - June 12, 2014, 1:57 pm

I didn't make the fake dox. They just had no idea how to dox, he only got as far as my name.
