Ill take a vouch copy just to test it...otherwise makes no sense since its the finals and stats really don't matter. your win percentage is on the spread and money line is a coin toss and O/U is barely plausible.

good luck

Its for next season mate. I put it up now so people would be ready for next season by the time it starts, also while there is peak interest in the NBA

Hey mate. Not at this stage.

I've already given out my vouch copies to people that I trust. Sorry.

Starts in 8 days!! get keen
