Is it about size? 6-8 inches should be the average.

Is it about Technique?

Which one do you say?

Watch videos online on how to do this. Remember that all girls are going to be different, some will squirt easily and some won't. Either way, fuck her right in the pussy.

Only some girls are able to squirt. Not all girls can squirt. Some girls squirt easier than others. Size doesn't really matter but yeah being 2 inches won't be helpful. It's more technique than anything. Just need to find the girls "spot".

Just google it, you are better of there instead of asking it here on "Hackforums"..

I find using my face until she "orgasms," then fucking her helpful. Make sure to pull out when you know and it will go everywhere. This is if she's capable of it.

I hate when people say that, this is the INNUENDO forum. Hacking is just the main theme of the forums.

You have to warm her up really well first. In my experience, the girl has to be very horny.

What I do is I stimulate the G-spot (it's right below the pubic bone, around 2-3 inches inside, you'll feel it by the change of texture) in a "come here" motion. As for sex, I believe doggy style is the best position in which your penis also stimulates the woman's G-spot.

The G-spot. Watch some porn them bitches be shooting waterfalls out.

Letting a girl squirt with your dick is really hard or impossible or the girl has to be really sensitive.

With 2 fingers it's much easier but hard to explain.

Exactly my point..We have a variety of members here, some of which may be professional in this subject.

The fingers is not hard, i was just wondering while having sex what is the best method really..

The fingers is a simple gspot stimulation..but dont forget to warm her up with a nice oily massage :)

Why are you asking that here, not like anyone here has any experience...after all nobody has a life on here :)

Im laughing so hard imagine all the white skids who are trying to figure out on how to use a woman correctly rather than their nerdy tools xD But like the posters said, it depends on your lady... and at least on your technique ;)

But cool, ive made my girl squirt but just wondered about the technique during sex rather then foreplay.

But cool, ive made my girl squirt but just wondered about the technique during sex rather then foreplay.Foreplay is a part of the sex. Looking at fingering during sex and the intercourse itself as two different things is wrong imo. For best position, I'd say doggy or her laying on a pillow with her legs on your hips, so your penis stimulates her G-spot indirectly during sex.

suspiciousmacaroni - June 13, 2014, 2:15 pm

i made a girl squirt, and she'd never done it before. im quite large, and i went at her pussy missionary for about 10-20 minutes straight. i pulled out to go doggy and i thought she was fucking peeing on me Imfao, but she later told me she orgasmed about 3 or 4 times in those 20 minutes. so i think making a girl squirt is mostly about size and stamina.
