Thread: Xbox prefix for Minecraft forum under gaming tab

angusburrito - June 11, 2014, 2:32 pm

I think there should be an "Xbox" thread prefix in the Minecraft forum under the gaming tab, or even a Minecraft: Xbox 360 Edition sub-forum under the Minecraft forum. ?

Just a suggestion as this is the Suggestions and Ideas forum, so keep your rude comments to yourselves, save them for a better thread.

Not enough activity for a subforum, there is hardly any posts regarding consoles in the Minecraft section anyhow.

No idea how you missed the top sticky thread, you're meant to suggest thread prefixes there.

The MC Forum is deteriorating as we speak, and getting more LQ By the second.

In no way shape or form would a console MC section be opened up,

Although however, if you show how much the community would really need the prefix for it, I don't see what would be stopping it from being added. BESIDES the fact no one would really use it ?

I'd suggest using the pinned thread by Omni to suggestion thread prefixes;

Just wanted to mention that since Aura wanted to suggest some last week and his thread got closed with him being directed to that topic.

This suggestion wasn't fully revolving around a thread prefix, but after what you fellers had to say, I'm gonna go ahead and close this up.

Use the Thread Prefixes by Omniscient thread to suggest prefixes.

As for a dedicated section just for one version of the game, there isn't enough activity to warrant a section like that.
