Umm.. isn't hardline open for beta? So it's basically free?

But not everyone gets the beta, it will be drawn.

And what about BF 3?

I applied for the beta and got in straight away. Don't think it's worth selling, plus I think this would be in the wrong section.

And what is the worth of Battlefield 3?

BF3 was free like not even that long ago. Created around 100 accounts so I doubt its worth anything tbh.

I got in the beta a day after signing up everyone gets in if they sign up. Though it was half way done and the download restarted for some reason. I hate Origin..

Wait a couple weeks and once registration is closed sell them. I sold PC ones to guys at my school for £20 each there that retarded.
