Thread: I got an A+ in English my english exams because of you guys

Peter DragonSlayer - June 13, 2014, 11:11 am

Yeah I'm from Denmark, which of course means that my native language isn't English. I just wanna let you know that being on such an awesome and interacting forums like HF, really helped me shape up my English.

My friend has also made huge steps in terms of learning English language thanks to this community.

Just wanna say thanks for helping me grind that A+ :)

Viel Glück in der Zukunft makes more sense. First sentence is perfectly fine
