Thread: Why parents shouldn't be on facebook \(especially really old parents\)

clark.dll - June 13, 2014, 11:23 am

My parents aren't on FB, but my aunts are! Wtf? here's a list of things they do.

They like everything they often forget their comments are visible to EVERYONE.

they right things like "Wow what a handsome lad!" or "You get your looks from your aunt!"

they frequently post nonsense that makes no sense to anyone

they over use lol and exclamation points

they'll point out when you're doing something more mature (drinking, or smoking)

they grave dig, posting on shit that's two or three years old

I think seniors should get their own FB.

Joshh - June 13, 2014, 11:24 am

If you dont like what they do then dont add them?

I think it all depends on the person. My mom has a FB and she doesn't do what most other parents do, she rarely likes stuff and she posts funny crap from time to time.

I guess it all depends on the person.

I just smile and hope they piss off

Yes some parents are cool, but some are outdated and clueless.

Linkin™ - June 13, 2014, 11:25 am

OP this is exactly what my mum does. Annoying and embarrassing as fuck lol.

Realistic - June 13, 2014, 11:27 am

You just have to learn to stop giving a fuck.

They're gonna use it, no sense in bitching about it.

I remember the good old days of FB back in 09 when it was just popular enough everyone used it, but not so popular the whole world revolved around it.

Rikko - June 13, 2014, 11:30 am

Tell them u dont use fb anymore haha

Grand Hustle - June 13, 2014, 11:32 am

Hack their Account, close the account; mission accomplished.

Who cares man... I got a uncle that's 58 years old. He dresses like a teenager... he is a stay at home husband. His wife works and she makes the money. He just watches tv and takes care of the kids and cleans the house.

All of my cousins, aunts, uncles are on FB and they have no privacy. They post everything... even the drug houses they bought and are using to grow weed. They post it on FB and I am dumbfounded how they're not arrested for this... I mean it's been 4 years. They brag about how much weed they have and how much they sold and what they got for it. They take pics of their weed plants and the money they made all flatten out... spreading the cash.

Good thing I don't use facebook. I don't see why so many people do.

PAFE - June 13, 2014, 11:36 am

Who even uses facebook anymore, I only use it to speak to faggots in my school if I can't get hold of them through their phone and to watch vines.

It's a handy way to keep up to date with everyone. It's great for event planning and just general socializing.

You sir, made my day! "Outdated and clueless", LOL! ?

@OT i totally agree with you.

b?xxy - June 13, 2014, 11:38 am

Just showed my mother this. She then decided she wanted to call me a disrespectful shit. XD

Act. - June 13, 2014, 2:02 pm

Basically your saying this probably because your parent(s) shamed you out totally in front all of your friends and you got mad as f*ck? Idc if my mother/dad has Facebook, Idc if they comment/likes my pictures or w.e, they are my parents.

Your name just gave me fucking aids.

? Juicy™ Hacker ? - June 13, 2014, 2:10 pm

yup you are correct ... its like that

Pillows - June 13, 2014, 2:11 pm

It's bad enough that my relatives have me on facebook. But it's a good thing my parents don't know social media and don't know english :D

Else my life would be hell.

nickchan - June 13, 2014, 2:17 pm

Have fun giving up your privacy to facebook.

I rather keep my privacy then have facebook know everything I post. Even if you delete your facebook account they still have access to all of your stuff. Another thing that pisses me off facebook forces you to use your real name.

Pow3r - June 13, 2014, 2:20 pm

Or maybe all the fucking idiots that characterize this current generation should keep off Facebook and do something more constructive like jump off a tall building into a vat of boiling iron?

Rawwwrrr - June 13, 2014, 2:21 pm

Facebook.senior <---Could catch on? Maybe?

Ni©k - June 13, 2014, 2:26 pm

I totally agree with you OP.

My mother used to do it until we fought about it.

sonikk4ever - June 13, 2014, 2:30 pm

That's one of the most ridiculous threads I have ever seen on HF.

So when you will be old as your parents you will be automatically be obligated to delete your Facebook account because the young generation finds it awkward?

Transported - June 13, 2014, 2:30 pm

Say you don't use Facebook anymore and make a Twitter. Problem solved. Everyone should have a right to a damn social media site.

Milzooo - June 13, 2014, 2:31 pm

haha this made me laugh alot so true man!

Chicago. - June 13, 2014, 2:34 pm

Or they constantly ask you who a certain person is

ChapTs - June 13, 2014, 2:40 pm

Great arguments. My family just stick to liking all the nonsense shit I post :D
