Yeah, at least I use to, I stopped like a month ago lmao

Indulg3 - June 14, 2014, 7:08 pm

Damn, why didn't you link your YouTube account in the OP? Free advertising, I would've checked it out for sure.

Vxncent - June 14, 2014, 8:23 pm

What's your YouTube link OP? I'd love to have a look.

Kung Fu Kenny - June 14, 2014, 8:29 pm

So do you bot your videos little by little so it looks legit? Since you stopped a month ago

Dorrance - June 14, 2014, 8:55 pm

Nice payout I used to make the same on average you make. What is your channel I will drop a couple subs for ya.

ScruffyTheJanitor - June 15, 2014, 5:00 am

Machinima is one of the worst networks on YouTube.

Nope. I have friends with over 200k subs and 50k - 70k+ daily views that get ignored until they make videos about how bad the network is and threaten them.

They're a shit network period. There's a reason popular channels leave whenever they get the chance...

I've been with them for years now... They're a great network, I've never had a problem with them, ever.

Yeah, and what's your revenue share and contract length? 60% and multiple years?

Yep, and I am okay with that to be honest. Im not all in it for the money. But when I do get a big payout that means I'm growing my channel, which is what Im more excited about. I own my own company thats my main source of money.

Free Mason - June 15, 2014, 10:51 pm

This is sweet I think I need to start posting gaming vids.

Respect - June 15, 2014, 11:12 pm

Congrats man, must feel good to see your hard work paying off.

iDuL - June 15, 2014, 11:17 pm

I wish I was getting paid by them back in the day when I used to capture things with my Dazzle..
Congrats!

Arsenal Football Club - June 16, 2014, 3:21 am

Nice earnings man for a month - what your stats for ghosts then?

Love - June 16, 2014, 10:21 am

How do you gain an audience? I am probably going to start my channel today.

Erwin Schrödinger - June 16, 2014, 10:23 am

That's really cool!

I might want to make videos too! :3

Can you tell us why it's the worst network if possible? Thanks

Nickelodeon - June 17, 2014, 3:57 pm

Congratulations Mark! You've always been an YouTube whore. As far as I remember you was a member of MyToobs right?

F-18 - June 17, 2014, 3:58 pm

Partner with TGN you would have got $400!!!! I've been with TGN for 2 years now. They gave me a free iPad too!

TGN has the same shitty rev share.

Thanks

- Bad support
- Bad rev share (unless you have a larger channel)
- Bad contract length
- History of screwing partners over

1. I get same day support, and I've even had them call me.
 2. 60/40 is kind of standard...
 3. 4 year contract length is fine if you understand and read what you're actually doing
 4. What..?

I don't think you've actually been with Machinima or experienced any of the 4 things you just listed...

Lol, I know and have experienced plenty more than you. Here's a handful of my contacts..

Sirenfal = TeamAvolition

Xbalanaque = G18SprayAndPray

60/40 contract and 4 years? I'm sorry you think that's fair. What exactly does the network do that makes them deserve 40% of anyone's revenue? Nothing.

Creative Nation offers 90% with a 10 month agreement.
Curse offers 90% with no lock in.

Many other networks offer a base of at least 70-80%.

One example video -

I personally looked at what his channel was generating, and what Machinima was paying him was a complete joke.
