FoShizzleMyNizzle - June 17, 2014, 7:10 am

Dear HF I Sold Siper Elite 3 Worth 36€ to the user Dark he wanted a vouch copy and told me if he was given the game he would redirect people asking him about his steam shop, that is now closed. I said I could sell him the game for 15$ which is really cheap, he said okey. Since he had +511 rep at that time I had no troubles of going first. When I had given him the game he said the he would send me the money the next day, Its now been 9 days and he is ignoring my PMs.
