Name : Special

What : 3 months ago I purchased his LoL account it got banned. He then stated if we each closed our scam reports he would give me the account back today he messages me with this. Ik he recovered the account for personal use because he said he payed $80 to get it back from the hijacker also saying it was never banned. Newsflash it got banned when I owned the account here is the proof. Fucking Insane these greedy ass mother fuckers FUCK YOU HF OVER 140 SCAMMED.

These are from today dont have the old logs as I am on my new laptop I will update those later.

EDIT : Quick Update <http://www.elopphant.com/league-of-legends/summoner/na/53999126>

Proof the account has not been played on

Sorry for your loss :(

Damn, $80...

Report looks sort of legit, why does the guy still have reps saying how legit he is??

Oh well, looks can deceive.

Hope you will get your money back and this will be settled!

Legit scam report. Hope you get your money back bro.

Hopsin - June 17, 2014, 2:18 pm

Even though it is a decent report, I still hope you get your money back or resolve this!

P aris - June 17, 2014, 2:20 pm

Legit report, hope you get your money back OP.

Your first scam report was considered fake too. I removed your rep out of curtosy. You admitted to me that you are a 14yo boy, and I think that proves everything.

At first I tought you banned the account, but after talking to Riot Support I figured the account was in use by someone else. The other day a dude aproched me on yahoo messenger saying he got my account and I can get it back for 80$. I got it back, now if you want the account you can either pay me the 80$ or find another account.

I'm not stressing out about kids opening random scam reports and -repping me. I know I'm legit, that's all that matters. :)

Have a good one,

Special

That fact you ignored me for 2 months then messaged me trying to get $80 is the most shit I have ever heard in my life.

I told you kid. Facts are facts. A few -rep won't change the way things are.

Bump for this

Keep clear of him in the market place

Peril - June 28, 2014, 10:33 am

Dont trust this guy he will scam you keep on the look out of him in the market place

It is funny how OP cries about being scammed and then goes on to scam a member himself. People are supposed to learn from things like these and get better. You should too.

This is why i tell people not to buy or sell on this forum, yet no one ever learns, your own fault Peril.
Do not blame your stupidity on other people.

Maybe this explains why you stole $165 from my friend.
