Thread: [\[Cheap\] \[97% Success Rate\] CloudFlare Backend Resolving](#)

I R PK3R - June 19, 2014, 1:00 am

Do you have a website you want to take down but you can't find the backend IP?

I will be resolving the backend of any website for you for a good price.

With a 95-98% success rate, my service beats any CloudFlare resolver or other public methods of resolving the backend.

Price will be $10 which is very cheap compared to other backend resolving services. (Won't name them here but I can link you if you PM me)

I will provide the backend IP address within 24 hours of receiving the domain in question. (Usually within 10 minutes though)

You will PM me the site, I will see if I can get the backend, if I'm able to get the backend you will pay me and I will give you the backend IP.

Not doing any vouch copies at the moment since I've had a free backend resolving service for a while and I have vouches on it.

As you can see I have resolved many backends for people and they're all happy.

PM me if you'd like to purchase this.
