Any website with a red asterisk (*) next to it is a personal favorite and a resource I highly recommend looking at.

This list will be added too fairly consistently, and I'm open to any suggestions for additions.

Getting started with Investing:

<http://www.aaii.com/classroom>

<http://www.investopedia.com/investing/investing-basics/> (*)

KEY Websites for EVERYONE

<http://www.investopedia.com>

<http://www.marketwatch.com>

<http://finance.yahoo.com/>

<http://www.bloomberg.com/markets/stocks/> (*)

Charting Websites(Advanced)

<http://ycharts.com/>

<http://stockcharts.com/> (*)

<http://finviz.com/>

Informational/Incredibly Useful Websites:

<http://www.morningstar.com/>

<http://www.briefing.com/> (*)

<http://seekingalpha.com/>

<http://www.sec.gov/edgar/searchedgar/webusers.htm#.U6XXo5RdWCK> (*)

<http://www.economist.com/>

<https://www.stockrover.com/sr/> (*)

Online Portfolio Managers:

<https://www.wikinvest.com/account/portfolio/regx/start> (*)

<http://money.cnn.com/>

Stock Boards/Forums:

<http://www.aaii.com/boards/> (*)

<http://www.hotstockmarket.com/f/32/hsm-stock-forum>

<http://onlinetradersforum.com/>

<http://investorshub.advn.com/>

Books To Read:

The Intelligent Investor by Benjamin Graham

A Random Walk Down Wall Street by Burton G. Malkiel (*)

The Black Swan by Nicholas Nassim Taleb (*)

If It's Raining in Brazil, Buy Starbucks by Peter Navarro

Always a Winner by Peter Navarro (*)

Freakonomics: A Rogue Economist Explores the Hidden Side of Everything by Steven D. Levitt and Stephen J. Dubner (*)

I will probably make a few small tutorials demonstrating how to use each of these given resources.
(Mainly the charting tools probably.)
