I been looking to xss some HQ sites recently, well I done did it. Check out my XSS'S.

Ford Social: <http://prntscr.com/3wj47b>

Ford Owner: <http://prntscr.com/3wj4l0>

Fords fund raising site for cancer: <http://prntscr.com/3wj517>

Obamas website for donations: <http://prntscr.com/3wj6gc>

American Educational Research Association: <http://prntscr.com/3wj8pl>

SBA.GOV: <http://prntscr.com/3wkrat>

ILSOS.GOV: <http://prntscr.com/3wksrb>

Secure.Utah.GOV: <http://prntscr.com/3wksz2>:

Brighthouse.com: <http://prntscr.com/3z7sq5>

I'll be posting threads about xss's I find that are pretty cool.

Also, Have a good day, peace.

There definitely wouldn't be any reward for the Obama one, as it was done without authorization. In fact, have at it and report them. That'd be a mistake.

Inb4 predator drone strike.

These are pretty lame, you've just used some random vector for every single site. No skill involved there.

Inb4 predator drone strike.All of them were done without authorization. 98% of all XSS patterns are being done without authorization.

lol, who cares? It's useless shit.

Try to find an xss in twitter,google,facebook that takes real skill instead of these shit sites.
